House OK Seen for Reservists

Measure Would Force Obligations

Washington, May 18 (AP)—The administration's program to build up the military reserves was expected to pass the House intact today despite efforts to soften or kill it.

Rep. Brooks (D-La.) predicted a bill to carry out the program would pass without major amendments, but only after a fight. Brooks leads House forces backing the legislation which already falls somewhat short of original Pentagon requests.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower is behind the measure to give the military limited authority to enforce reserve obligations and to provide a new plan for training up to one million teen-age volunteers in four years.

After sharp opening debate yesterday, the House returns for more argument and an expected series of amendments before final action.

IN ONE KEY provision, the measure would authorize the Pentagon to recall for 45 days' active duty reservists who fail to maintain a minimum of 48 weekly drills and 15 days' summer training a year, or the equivalent. Involved are draftees and volunteers who have completed active duty since mid-1953 and are obligated for a total of five years' active and reserve service.

The House Armed Services Committee softened the Pentagon's original proposal to make these reservists liable to a discharge other than honorable, if they failed to keep up their training. But Brooks said he expected attempts to reduce the enforcement provision further.

In a second key section, the measure would provide for up to

Early Vaccine Approval Seen

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Bills to carry out the Eisenhower administration's polio vaccination program for poor children have been dropped in the congressional hopper—one by a Republican and the other by a Democrat.

Early approval seemed assured as bipartisan support was voiced for the plan to put up 28 million dollars to make sure lack of money bars no child from getting the vaccine.

Whitehead Verdict Is $12,000

Action Is Result Of 1948 Fatality

A verdict for $12,000 was returned Tuesday afternoon by a jury in the action brought in Supreme Court by Sadie Whitehead to recover for the death of her son, Frank L. Whitehead, 22, who was killed in an automobile accident on July 4, 1948, at 4 a. m. near the Neighborhood Road and Route 9W. He was a passenger in the car of Doris Fowler, operated by Walter Olkowski, which was in an accident with a truck of the Westchester Movers, Inc.

A SETTLEMENT had been made on the part of Westchester Movers, Inc., by payment of $4,000 and in his charge to the jury Justice Hamm charged the jury to determine the amount of the total verdict and then deduct the payment already made by the second defendant and return a verdict for the balance, which the jury held to be $12,000, or a total of $16,000 damages.

N. LeVan Haver appeared for plaintiff and Kent, Hazzard, Jaeger and Wilson appeared for defendant.

SELECTION of a jury in No. 80, Mary Damis against Adirondack Transit Lines and David E. Kunker, an action for injuries sustained when a bus in which plaintiff was a passenger overturned on November 10, 1948, was delayed when the panel of jurors became exhausted and it became necessary to await the decision of the jury in the previous action in order that those jurors might be available. Selection of the jury was resumed when the Whitehead jury reported.

President Backing Mrs. Hobby Program

Washington, May 18 (AP) — President Eisenhower said today Secretary of Welfare Hobby has handled the Salk polio vaccine program and her job generally in a highly efficient manner.

The President's statement was made at a news conference when he was told Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) had described Mrs. Hobby as guilty of "gross incompetency" in the vaccine program. Morse said she ought to be removed from office.

Eisenhower said it would be a waste of time for him to take note of Morse's accusations.

The President went on to say that Mrs. Hobby's record in the cabinet has proved out what Eisenhower termed the good opinion in which she was held during the war as commander of the Women's Army Corps.

Those good opinions are fully justified, Eisenhower said, adding that she has handled her job, including the vaccine program, in a highly efficient manner.

Her counsel, Eisenhower said, has been eagerly sought.

Asked about reports that Mrs. Hobby may resign soon, the President said she placed him on notice some months ago that for personal reasons it might become necessary for her to leave government service.

Eisenhower said he would be sorry to lose her services because, as he put it, she is a symbol underscoring the idea that properly trained women are just as able to handle important jobs as men are.

The President gave no hint of what personal reasons might make it necessary for Mrs. Hobby to resign.

However, her husband, former Governor William P. Hobby of Texas, has been ill with arthritis. Mrs. Hobby flew to Houston earlier this week to be with her husband.

Rules Out Thought of Any Trap

Dulles Refers To Peace Dawn

Washington, May 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he just can't believe the American people think he will fall into any appeasement trap at international conferences.

He also said he feels some good might come if, at the proposed Big Four conference of Eisenhower and the prime ministers of Britain, France and Russia, he could sit down and talk with Marshal Georgi Zhukov, the Soviet defense minister and a long-time friend.

EISENHOWER'S remarks to his news conference were a follow-up to last night's nationwide television broadcast in which Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles made clear that they are preparing for the Big Four session in the hope that it may prove a "new dawn" of peace is breaking.

Eisenhower was asked about the contention of some members of Congress that any top level conference which includes a Russian representative is likely to end in appeasement.

HE DOESN'T believe for a minute, the President said, that the leaders of Congress who meet with him regularly feel there ever will be any appeasement on his part.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, and Chairman Bridges (N. H.) of the Senate GOP Policy Committee have raised questions as to the possible results of any top level conference. They are among congressional leaders who meet with the President weekly.

Eisenhower said appeasement means giving away the rights of other people.

THUMPING his desk vigorously he said he just can't believe the American people think he will fall into any such trap.

Eisenhower said it was his idea, and also Dulles' idea, that a conference at the summit will merely point out the lines along which foreign ministers and other diplomats can work in the search for international agreements.

The President took note that an idea seems to be developing of a neutralized belt of countries in eastern Europe between Russia and the west. He did not slam the door on the possibility of such an arrangement.

Instead, Eisenhower emphasized that under its new independence treaty Austria will be a neutral state but not a military blank. Like Switzerland, Austria will be armed, Eisenhower said, and that is far different neutrality from one which creates a military vacuum.

ON OTHER Big Four questions Eisenhower said:

1. The United States needs a flexible attitude toward trade with Iron Curtain countries. Trade, he said, is the greatest weapon of the diplomat, and American and free world policies must be determined by deciding when trade most benefits this country and its friends—so long as it does not help Communist warmaking power.

2. When he said last night that he thought the American people have "greater maturity" about foreign affairs he meant they have more knowledge or understanding than formerly. He added today he does not think they expect too much from a Big Four meeting.

3. Among the problems which might be brought up at the top-level conference are those of the satellite states and the penetration of so many countries by international communism. Dulles

Mining, Construction Spurs Need for Hercules Products

Demand for Industrial Explosives Is Seen Raising Local Plant Production

A 60 per cent increase in the consumption of dynamite and blasting supplies during the next 20 years was forecast Tuesday by John M. Martin, general manager of Hercules Powder Company's Explosives Department, in an address to a luncheon meeting attended by the Board of Directors of Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Martin, a member of the Hercules board of directors at Wilmington, Del., said that the use of dynamite for mining and construction projects has doubled in the past 20 years. Total domestic consumption last year was 680 million pounds, he said.

"It is only logical, therefore, that as the demand for industrial explosives increases year by year, the work load of our Port Ewen plant will correspondingly increase," Mr. Martin said.

THE SPEAKER emphasized the important role played by the Hercules' Port Ewen plant in the production of blasting caps, and especially electric blasting caps so precisely engineered "they have built-in timing devices."

Through the development of these electric blasting caps, Mr. Martin pointed out, delay intervals are made possible in setting off a series of dynamite charges, extremely useful in tunnelling through rock.

Electric blasting caps have a dual use in seismographic oil exploration, one of the major consumers of dynamite, Mr. Martin said. The cap accurately marks the time at which the seismic wave is initiated, thus providing the seismograph crews with data which enables them to evaluate underground formations with which oil may be associated.

OTHER MAJOR consumers of dynamite, Mr. Martin said, are the coal mining industry, construction, quarrying, non-metal and metal mining industries. He spoke of the contribution of modern explosives to such projects as giant hydroelectric dams, express highways, and the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The speaker described in detail the use of dynamite in the mining of Taconite, an extremely hard rock from which iron is now being extracted.

"AS THE RICH deposits of high grade iron, copper and other metals are depleted, we must turn to low grade ores for our needed supplies, which in most cases requires greater amounts of dynamite to produce the same amount of iron, copper or other metals," Mr. Martin said.

He described briefly Hercules' participation in the national defense program, through its operation of government-owned ordnance plants. He traced Hercules' research and development of rocket propellants, from the company's World War 2 production of bazooka rockets to the boosters now used for the army's anti-aircraft guided missiles and artillery rockets.

THE GROWTH of Hercules Powder Company's Nitrogen Products Division, with the expansion of one plant, the acquisition of another and the construction of a third—all for the production of anhydrous ammonia—was also described.

The manufacturing capacity for anhydrous ammonia and its derivatives used in fertilizers has grown from approximately 400,000 tons in 1939 to almost 4 million tons at present, the speaker said. This rate of growth is almost twice that of the chemical industry as a whole, and four times that of industry in general, he said.

Invited guests for the industrial luncheon sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in the Governor Clinton Hotel were Mayor Frederick H. Stang, Edmund P. Rochford, works man-

Dutch Have Crisis Over New Leader

The Hague, Netherlands, May 18 (AP)—The first Dutch government crisis in nearly three years sent Queen Juliana searching today for a political leader to form a new cabinet.

Premier Willem Drees submitted his coalition cabinet's resignation last night after losing a vote of confidence in Parliament's lower chamber 50-48. The vote came on a government bill to raise rent ceilings 10 per cent on about one-third of Holland's rented homes.

BECAUSE the rent issue is a major point of controversy between the country's two major parties, the Catholics and Drees' laborites, political circles predicted a long crisis. Each party has 30 of the 100 seats in the second chamber.

If a new government cannot be formed, a new Parliament must be elected. Normally the next general election would not come until June 25, 1956.

Defeat of the rent increase also knocked out a government proposal to trim income taxes about 130 million dollars. The government had made the two measures "inseparable," although the vote yesterday was only on the rent measure.

THE LABORITES deserted Drees to vote solidly against the bill. They said they would agree to it only if wages were raised simultaneously. As in the United States, cabinet members cannot also be members of the legislative branch.

Until a new government is formed, Drees' cabinet will continue in office as caretakers. The Socialist leader had formed it in September, 1952, after a 12-week crisis following the national elections that year. The cabinet lineup was Catholics 6, Laborites 5, Anti-Revolutionary Party 2, Christian Historical Union 2, non-party 1.

Guard Will Hold Open House on Sunday, May 22

Officers and men of the 156th Armored Field Artillery Battalion, New York National Guard, will be hosts at an open house program Sunday, May 22, in honor of Armed Forces Day from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The armory facilities will be open for inspection by the public and displays of equipment will be shown both indoor and on the Armory grounds. Demonstrations will be conducted by Headquarters Battery, Battery A, Service Battery and the Medical Detachment.

THE AIR SECTION will perform flight salutes during the day and the recently armored self-propelled 105mm Howitzer motor carriages will be demonstrated in action on the armory grounds.

Plans also call for the setting up of command posts, field kitchens will be operated and communications, both wire and radio, will be established for demonstration.

Census Is First Step

Saigon, South Viet Nam, May 18 (AP)—South Viet Nam decided today to organize a population census as a first step toward calling its first general elections. A committee of the ministers of interior, foreign affairs, justice and information also voted that the government promulgate a law defining qualifications for Vietnamese citizenship. The population of South Viet Nam has been estimated at between 10 and 12 million. There has been no formal census since before World War 2.

St. Paul, Minn., May 18 (AP)—Dr. Arthur L. Knoblauch, University of Connecticut professor of educational administration, was named yesterday as president of the Moorhead, Minn., State Teachers College.

Shooting Called Accidental in Esopus Section

Investigation of the wounding of a transient on May 8 along the railroad tracks at Esopus has resulted in a preliminary finding that the incident probably was an accident, County Investigator Arthur H. Brown indicated today.

James Swift, 65, who had been employed in the Ulster Park area, was shot in the lower left leg. Found near the railroad tracks a mile north of the Esopus station, Swift was taken to the Benedictine Hospital by Kenneth Blair, 18, and John Mowell, 15, both of Esopus, Brown said.

THE INJURED man was later transferred to the Veterans Administration Hospital at Albany and reports available to the sheriff's office indicate he was not critically hurt.

Several persons in the vicinity were questioned during investigation by Brown, Under Sheriff Clayton W. Vredenburg and Jailer Carl Cline. Although it has not been established who fired the shot, authorities said they believe it was fired at a woodchuck and may have glanced off a rail or other object before striking Swift.

Ike Denies Russia Tops U. S. in Air

Washington, May 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today it just isn't true to say that the United States has lost control of the air to Russia.

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference about a statement by Sen. Symington (D.-Mo.) that the Soviets have gained ascendency in air power.

The President replied that was a very general statement. He said air power is a relative thing.

Anybody can gain control of the air by concentrating at a given point and within a given space of time, Eisenhower said. He added that the Germans did that as late as January, 1945, when they plastered allied air fields. That was in the late stages of World War 2 when the allies had over-all command of the air.

Woman Is Guilty In Phone Tieup

Mrs. Mary L. Kayes Faces $500 Fine, Year in Jail for Ignoring Fire Plea

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—A hot-tempered housewife has been found guilty of refusing to yield a country telephone party line when a volunteer fireman tried to report a fire.

Mrs. Mary L. Kayes, 43, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., could get a maximum of a year in jail, a $500 fine or both under a new state statute covering use of party line telephones in an emergency.

MARY L. KAYES

A Dutchess county court jury of seven men and five women deliberated three hours before returning the verdict last night.

The jury foreman, Mrs. Ruth Case, is herself a party line user.

Mrs. Kayes, mother of four, sobbed when the verdict was announced.

"LET ME ALONE, don't bother me," she shouted at newsmen.

County Judge John R. Schwartz set May 24 for sentencing and continued Mrs. Kayes in $500 bail.

According to testimony in the two-day trial, Mrs. Kayes said "Let the damn thing burn and get off the line" when Fire Dispatcher Donald Townsend asked her to give up the line to report a brush fire last Jan. 21. Townsend and Mrs. Kayes share the line with five other users.

TOWNSEND TESTIFIED he had to drive nearly a mile to another telephone in order to make the call.

A fire official told the court the fire got out of control because of the delay and destroyed a nearby barn.

Mrs. Kayes claimed she didn't believe there really was a fire, because "You hear the darndest things on a party line."

Dist. Atty. Raymond Barratta said of the verdict: "This was a just verdict and should act as a deterrent to others who fail to relinquish a circuit on a party line in an emergency. This is a new law and a good one."

SAID DEFENSE Attorney Richard Russell:

"If we expect everyone in the country to use the greatest amount of judgment on the spur of the moment, our jails would be filled. We must use reason in applying this law. We should not make criminals out of people who are not criminals, and we should not make criminals out of people who are short-tempered."

Townsend testified that he did not identify himself to Mrs. Kayes while trying to break into

Arace Reports No Plans Ahead for New Construction

Excavation is in progress on a lot on Broadway between the railroad underpass and Thomas street, but there are no immediate plans for construction, the owner said today.

Louis Arace, proprietor of Arace Appliances, said he is having the dirt removed from the lot, but has no plans for constructing a building there. It may be "a couple of years" before definite plans are developed, he said.

The lot is one that was left separated from street level by a steep embankment when Broadway was depressed to allow for a grade separation at the crossing.

Arace Appliances was located in that general area prior to the grade separation, when it moved to its present quarters at 622 Broadway.

Permanent Revival Needed Presbyterians Are Advised

Los Angeles, May 18 (AP)—"The so-called revival sweeping America isn't genuine or permanent," Presbyterians were told last night. "Most people seem to want God as you want a hot water bottle in the night—to get you over a temporary discomfort."

Dr. Charles B. Templeton of New York, secretary of the Division of Evangelism of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, said at a rally preceding the church's 167th General Assembly:

"Membership in the churches is increasing more rapidly than the nation's population and is at an all-time high. However, there is also an increase in the national debt, national taxes and national crime.

"Oddly enough, though there is a statistical increase in religious interest, there is also an increase in the number of criminals and the seriousness of their offenses.

"The statistical columns reveal a nation increasingly Christian. The news columns reveal a nation increasingly pagan.

"Any genuine revival of religion will have to go beyond a mere concern to have God as a convenience and come to the point of dedication to Him and to His world."

Dr. Templeton addressed an estimated 3,000 persons at an evangelistic rally of a two-day pre-assembly conference. The general assembly itself opens tomorrow and continues through next Wednesday. Besides 880 lay and clerical commissioners or voting delegates, about 5,000 other visitors are expected to attend.

"The signs of an increase of religious interest are evident," Dr. Templeton said, "but concern for religion is not commitment.

"There are approximately 35 million people in church on Sunday. This means that on any given Sunday 125 million Americans do not trouble themselves corporately to worship God.

"There are approximately 85 million people on the rolls of the church, but this means that some 75 million have no formal relationship with the church."

Fire Police, Radio, June Convention Discussed by Vols

Thirty-one companies were represented at the May meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association held at Hasbrouck Hall, Modena, last evening. There were approximately 200 members present when President Adam Ulrich of Wallkill called the session to order.

The association was the guest of Modena, Clintondale, Plattekill and Gardiner departments. The next meeting will be held at Centerville in June.

Chief Winfield Snyder of Hurley, chairman of the radio committee, reported progress was being made toward a county-wide two radio system but at the present time no definite information was available.

During April there were 24 calls received through the Mutual Aid system, Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of Kingston reported. Chief Murphy also reported on plans for the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Convention and parade which will be held in Kingston next month. Fire companies of Ulster county will parade as a unit and will lead the third division in the parade on Saturday, June 18, headed by the Port Ewen Drum Corps.

A meeting will be held at Tillson on May 20 at which time the county fire companies will discuss and make plans for formation of a County Fire Police Association. This association was formed over a year ago at Suffern on a state-wide basis and presently there are 1,400 members in the association which extends from Long Island to Buffalo. Fire police function in emergencies at fires and are in no way a part of local police forces but work in conjuntion with local police organizations in assisting at fires. All companies interested in forming a unit in Ulster county are requested to have representatives at the meeting in Tillson.

There was also a discussion on plans for entertainment of the County Association in smaller communities at the annual meeting and parade. Many of the smaller communities desire to entertain the annual convention but do not have facilities for a parade. Several suggestions

Major New York Milkshed Cooperatives Would Add North Jersey to Market Area

Syracuse, May 18 (AP)—The four major dairy producer cooperatives in the New York milkshed have decided to ask that northern New Jersey be added to its marketing area.

New Jersey dairymen largely oppose the plan.

The U. S. Secretary of Agriculture is expected soon to bring the dispute to a head.

Authoritative sources in the dairy industry here say they are awaiting an invitation from Secretary Ezra T. Benson to give him their ideas on how the metropolitan New York milk marketing area should be enlarged.

Prices paid to milk producers selling in the area are regulated under a joint federal-state marketing order.

Benson already has announced that a hearing will be held on a request by New Jersey farmers for a separate marketing order covering the entire state. The date and place have not been set.

The secretary promised in his decision following the New York milkshed hearing earlier this year that he would call hearings on "a long-range, comprehensive program for stabilizing the marketing of milk in the entire metropolitan area."

Some prominent dairy leaders here have wondered whether Benson planned to wait until he heard from the New York milkshed groups and to schedule a joint hearing on both issues.

The metropolitan New York bargaining area now comprises New York city, Long Island and Westchester county. All milk sold to consumers in that area comes under the existing order.

The farmers are in New York state, and parts of New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Ver-

PRESIDENT Eisenhower is behind the measure to give the military limited authority to enforce reserve obligations and to provide a new plan for training up to one million teen-age volunteers in four years.

After sharp opening debate yesterday, the House returns for more argument and an expected series of amendments before final action.

IN ONE KEY provision, the measure would authorize the Pentagon to recall for 45 days' active duty reservists who fail to maintain a minimum of 48 weekly drills and 15 days' summer training a year, or the equivalent. Involved are draftees and volunteers who have completed active duty since mid-1953 and are obligated for a total of five years' active and reserve service.

The House Armed Services Committee softened the Pentagon's original proposal to make these reservists liable to a discharge other than honorable, if they failed to keep up their training. But Brooks said he expected attempts to reduce the enforcement provision further.

In a second key section, the measure would provide for up to

Shooting Called Accidental in Esopus Section

Investigation of the wounding of a transient on May 8 along the railroad tracks at Esopus has resulted in a preliminary finding that the incident probably was an accident, County Investigator Arthur H. Brown indicated today.

James Swift, 65, who had been employed in the Ulster Park area, was shot in the lower left leg. Found near the railroad tracks a mile north of the Esopus station, Swift was taken to the Benedictine Hospital by Kenneth Blair, 18, and John Mowell, 15, both of Esopus, Brown said.

THE INJURED man was later transferred to the Veterans Administration Hospital at Albany and reports available to the sheriff's office indicate he was not critically hurt.

Several persons in the vicinity were questioned during investigation by Brown, Under Sheriff Clayton W. Vredenburg and Jailer Carl Cline. Although it has not been established who fired the shot, authorities said they believe it was fired at a woodchuck and may have glanced off a rail or other object before striking Swift.

Early Vaccine Approval Seen

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Bills to carry out the Eisenhower administration's polio vaccination program for poor children have been dropped in the congressional hopper—one by a Republican and the other by a Democrat.

Early approval seemed assured as bipartisan support was voiced for the plan to put up 28 million dollars to make sure lack of money bars no child from getting the vaccine.

Whitehead Verdict Is $12,000

Action Is Result Of 1948 Fatality

A verdict for $12,000 was returned Tuesday afternoon by a jury in the action brought in Supreme Court by Sadie Whitehead to recover for the death of her son, Frank L. Whitehead, 22, who was killed in an automobile accident on July 4, 1948, at 4 a. m. near the Neighborhood Road and Route 9W. He was a passenger in the car of Doris Fowler, operated by Walter Olkowski, which was in an accident with a truck of the Westchester Movers, Inc.

A SETTLEMENT had been made on the part of Westchester Movers, Inc., by payment of $4,000 and in his charge to the jury Justice Hamm charged the jury to determine the amount of the total verdict and then deduct the payment already made by the second defendant and return a verdict for the balance, which the jury held to be $12,000, or a total of $16,000 damages.

N. LeVan Haver appeared for plaintiff and Kent, Hazzard, Jaeger and Wilson appeared for defendant.

SELECTION of a jury in No. 80, Mary Damis against Adirondack Transit Lines and David E. Kunker, an action for injuries sustained when a bus in which plaintiff was a passenger overturned on November 10, 1948, was delayed when the panel of jurors became exhausted and it became necessary to await the decision of the jury in the previous action in order that those jurors might be available. Selection of the jury was resumed when the Whitehead jury reported.

Ike Denies Russia Tops U. S. in Air

Washington, May 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today it just isn't true to say that the United States has lost control of the air to Russia.

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference about a statement by Sen. Symington (D.-Mo.) that the Soviets have gained ascendency in air power.

The President replied that was a very general statement. He said air power is a relative thing.

Anybody can gain control of the air by concentrating at a given point and within a given space of time, Eisenhower said. He added that the Germans did that as late as January, 1945, when they plastered allied air fields. That was in the late stages of World War 2 when the allies had over-all command of the air.

Fire Police, Radio, June Convention Discussed by Vols

Thirty-one companies were represented at the May meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association held at Hasbrouck Hall, Modena, last evening. There were approximately 200 members present when President Adam Ulrich of Wallkill called the session to order.

The association was the guest of Modena, Clintondale, Plattekill and Gardiner departments. The next meeting will be held at Centerville in June.

Chief Winfield Snyder of Hurley, chairman of the radio committee, reported progress was being made toward a county-wide two radio system but at the present time no definite information was available.

During April there were 24 calls received through the Mutual Aid system, Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of Kingston reported. Chief Murphy also reported on plans for the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Convention and parade which will be held in Kingston next month. Fire companies of Ulster county will parade as a unit and will lead the third division in the parade on Saturday, June 18, headed by the Port Ewen Drum Corps.

A meeting will be held at Tillson on May 20 at which time the county fire companies will discuss and make plans for formation of a County Fire Police Association. This association was formed over a year ago at Suffern on a state-wide basis and presently there are 1,400 members in the association which extends from Long Island to Buffalo. Fire police function in emergencies at fires and are in no way a part of local police forces but work in conjuntion with local police organizations in assisting at fires. All companies interested in forming a unit in Ulster county are requested to have representatives at the meeting in Tillson.

There was also a discussion on plans for entertainment of the County Association in smaller communities at the annual meeting and parade. Many of the smaller communities desire to entertain the annual convention but do not have facilities for a parade. Several suggestions

Ike Would Confer With Red Minister

President Backing Mrs. Hobby Program

Washington, May 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today Secretary of Welfare Hobby has handled the Salk polio vaccine program and her job generally in a highly efficient manner.

The President's statement was made at a news conference when he was told Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) had described Mrs. Hobby as guilty of "gross incompetency" in the vaccine program. Morse said she ought to be removed from office.

Eisenhower said it would be a waste of time for him to take note of Morse's accusations.

The President went on to say that Mrs. Hobby's record in the cabinet has proved out what Eisenhower termed the good opinion in which she was held during the war as commander of the Women's Army Corps.

Those good opinions are fully justified, Eisenhower said, adding that she has handled her job, including the vaccine program, in a highly efficient manner.

Her counsel, Eisenhower said, has been eagerly sought.

Asked about reports that Mrs. Hobby may resign soon, the President said she placed him on notice some months ago that for personal reasons it might become necessary for her to leave government service.

Eisenhower said he would be sorry to lose her services because, as he put it, she is a symbol underscoring the idea that properly trained women are just as able to handle important jobs as men are.

The President gave no hint of what personal reasons might make it necessary for Mrs. Hobby to resign.

However, her husband, former Governor William P. Hobby of Texas, has been ill with arthritis. Mrs. Hobby flew to Houston earlier this week to be with her husband.

Rules Out Thought of Any Trap

Dulles Refers To Peace Dawn

Washington, May 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he just can't believe the American people think he will fall into any appeasement trap at international conferences.

He also said he feels some good might come if, at the proposed Big Four conference of Eisenhower and the prime ministers of Britain, France and Russia, he could sit down and talk with Marshal Georgi Zhukov, the Soviet defense minister and a long-time friend.

EISENHOWER'S remarks to his news conference were a follow-up to last night's nationwide television broadcast in which Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles made clear that they are preparing for the Big Four session in the hope that it may prove a "new dawn" of peace is breaking.

Eisenhower was asked about the contention of some members of Congress that any top level conference which includes a Russian representative is likely to end in appeasement.

HE DOESN'T believe for a minute, the President said, that the leaders of Congress who meet with him regularly feel there ever will be any appeasement on his part.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, and Chairman Bridges (N. H.) of the Senate GOP Policy Committee have raised questions as to the possible results of any top level conference. They are among congressional leaders who meet with the President weekly.

Eisenhower said appeasement means giving away the rights of other people.

THUMPING his desk vigorously he said he just can't believe the American people think he will fall into any such trap.

Eisenhower said it was his idea, and also Dulles' idea, that a conference at the summit will merely point out the lines along which foreign ministers and other diplomats can work in the search for international agreements.

The President took note that an idea seems to be developing of a neutralized belt of countries in eastern Europe between Russia and the west. He did not slam the door on the possibility of such an arrangement.

Instead, Eisenhower emphasized that under its new independence treaty Austria will be a neutral state but not a military blank. Like Switzerland, Austria will be armed, Eisenhower said, and that is far different neutrality from one which creates a military vacuum.

ON OTHER Big Four questions Eisenhower said:

1. The United States needs a flexible attitude toward trade with Iron Curtain countries. Trade, he said, is the greatest weapon of the diplomat, and American and free world policies must be determined by deciding when trade most benefits this country and its friends—so long as it does not help Communist warmaking power.

2. When he said last night that he thought the American people have "greater maturity" about foreign affairs he meant they have more knowledge or understanding than formerly. He added today he does not think they expect too much from a Big Four meeting.

3. Among the problems which might be brought up at the top-level conference are those of the satellite states and the penetration of so many countries by international communism. Dulles

Woman Is Guilty In Phone Tieup

Mrs. Mary L. Kayes Faces $500 Fine, Year in Jail for Ignoring Fire Plea

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—A hot-tempered housewife has been found guilty of refusing to yield a country telephone party line when a volunteer fireman tried to report a fire.

Mrs. Mary L. Kayes, 43, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., could get a maximum of a year in jail, a $500 fine or both under a new state statute covering use of party line telephones in an emergency.

MARY L. KAYES

A Dutchess county court jury of seven men and five women deliberated three hours before returning the verdict last night.

The jury foreman, Mrs. Ruth Case, is herself a party line user.

Mrs. Kayes, mother of four, sobbed when the verdict was announced.

"LET ME ALONE, don't bother me," she shouted at newsmen.

County Judge John R. Schwartz set May 24 for sentencing and continued Mrs. Kayes in $500 bail.

According to testimony in the two-day trial, Mrs. Kayes said "Let the damn thing burn and get off the line" when Fire Dispatcher Donald Townsend asked her to give up the line to report a brush fire last Jan. 21. Townsend and Mrs. Kayes share the line with five other users.

TOWNSEND TESTIFIED he had to drive nearly a mile to another telephone in order to make the call.

A fire official told the court the fire got out of control because of the delay and destroyed a nearby barn.

Mrs. Kayes claimed she didn't believe there really was a fire, because "You hear the darndest things on a party line."

Dist. Atty. Raymond Barratta said of the verdict: "This was a just verdict and should act as a deterrent to others who fail to relinquish a circuit on a party line in an emergency. This is a new law and a good one."

SAID DEFENSE Attorney Richard Russell:

"If we expect everyone in the country to use the greatest amount of judgment on the spur of the moment, our jails would be filled. We must use reason in applying this law. We should not make criminals out of people who are not criminals, and we should not make criminals out of people who are short-tempered."

Townsend testified that he did not identify himself to Mrs. Kayes while trying to break into

Arace Reports No Plans Ahead for New Construction

Excavation is in progress on a lot on Broadway between the railroad underpass and Thomas street, but there are no immediate plans for construction, the owner said today.

Louis Arace, proprietor of Arace Appliances, said he is having the dirt removed from the lot, but has no plans for constructing a building there. It may be "a couple of years" before definite plans are developed, he said.

The lot is one that was left separated from street level by a steep embankment when Broadway was depressed to allow for a grade separation at the crossing.

Arace Appliances was located in that general area prior to the grade separation, when it moved to its present quarters at 622 Broadway.

Major New York Milkshed Cooperatives Would Add North Jersey to Market Area

Syracuse, May 18 (AP)—The four major dairy producer cooperatives in the New York milkshed have decided to ask that northern New Jersey be added to its marketing area.

New Jersey dairymen largely oppose the plan.

The U. S. Secretary of Agriculture is expected soon to bring the dispute to a head.

Authoritative sources in the dairy industry here say they are awaiting an invitation from Secretary Ezra T. Benson to give him their ideas on how the metropolitan New York milk marketing area should be enlarged.

Prices paid to milk producers selling in the area are regulated under a joint federal-state marketing order.

Benson already has announced that a hearing will be held on a request by New Jersey farmers for a separate marketing order covering the entire state. The date and place have not been set.

The secretary promised in his decision following the New York milkshed hearing earlier this year that he would call hearings on "a long-range, comprehensive program for stabilizing the marketing of milk in the entire metropolitan area."

Some prominent dairy leaders here have wondered whether Benson planned to wait until he heard from the New York milkshed groups and to schedule a joint hearing on both issues.

The metropolitan New York bargaining area now comprises New York city, Long Island and Westchester county. All milk sold to consumers in that area comes under the existing order.

The farmers are in New York state, and parts of New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Ver-

Banker Catches Robber in Crash

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—The husky manager of a newly opened suburban bank single-handedly captured a lone gunman who held up the bank and fled with more than $2,000 in cash.

When the gunman drove away from the St. Clair Shores National Bank late yesterday Manager Bernard St. Germaine vaulted over the counter, raced to his own car and gave chase.

For a mile and a half at speeds up to 70 miles an hour, the two cars whirled along busy thoroughfares.

Then a cement truck lumbered into an intersection and the robber's car plowed into it. St. Germaine shouted to bystanders:

"Grab that man; he just robbed a bank!"

NOBODY MOVED, so St. Germaine grabbed him himself. He held the man until police arrived, then picked up the money which had spilled into the street.

Semi-dazed by the crash, the man offered no resistance.

"All right, you got me," he said. "Don't worry. I won't do anything.

Police identified him as Charles J. Cadaret, 21, of Detroit, and held him for the FBI for investigation of bank robbery.

Danish Blue Cheese Tops Fruit Pies Deliciously

DANISH BLUE CHEESE ROSETTES combine wonderfully with latticed blueberry pie.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

In Denmark we learned to use their wonderful blue cheese with fruit and berry pies. The other day we tried a latticed blueberry pie with little rosettes of Danish blue around the edges of the crust. The combination of flavors was delightful.

Lattice Blueberry Pie
(Make pastry for two-crust pie of desired size)

Nine-Inch Pie: Two and one-half cups berries and juice (No. 2 can packed in syrup), ¾ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, ½ teaspoon cinnamon or nutmeg, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Mix sugar and cornstarch together. (Add spice, if desired.) Drain berries well. Pour juice into sausepan. Cook over moderat heat until it comes to boil. Pour quickly over the sugar-cornstarch mixture. Return to saucepan, cook slowly, stirring constantly until mixture begins to thicken. Add berries and lemon juice.

Cool, pour into pastry-lined pan. Dot with bits of butter or margarine. Cover with strips of latticed pie crust or top crust. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 30 to 35 minutes until top is delicately browned. Cool decorate with rosettes of Danish blue cheese topping.

Danish Blue Cheese Topping

One-half cup Danish blue cheese, ½ package (3-ounce size) cream cheese, heavy cream to moisten.

Mash cheeses together until well blended, add cream, one tablespoonful at a time until mixture is consistency to force through a pastry bag, or cake decorating tube. Decorate top of pie with ornamental rosettes of the cheese topping.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Broiled salmon steaks, lemon butter, parsley new potatoes, fresh buttered asparagus, enriched bread, butter or margarine, latticed blueberry pie with rosettes of Danish blue cheese, coffee, tea, milk.

Fast Work on Gorillas

Detroit, May 18 (AP) — Two more baby gorillas are coming to the Detroit zoo after some fast red tape cutting. The zoo wants them to keep a gorilla it has just received from getting lonely. But zoo officials were balked in getting export permits from French Equatorial Africa. The zoo went to Mayor Albert E. Cobo. Cobo went to Sen. Potter (R-Mich.). Potter went to Secretary of State Dulles. Dulles went to the U. S. ambassador in Paris. The ambassador went to the French government. And up came the permits.

Longstreth Wins GOP Nomination In Philadelphia

Philadelphia, May 18 (AP)—Six-foot six-inch W. Thacher Longstreth, a 34-year-old advertising executive, won the four-sided Republican mayoralty nomination battle in Philadelphia yesterday to highlight Pennsylvania's quiet primary election.

The bespectacled former navy intelligence officer will get a chance to display his political selling technique in November against veteran campaigner Richardson Dilworth, the Democratic nominee. This is Longstreth's first try for public office.

DILWORTH, an unsuccessful gubernatorial candidate five years ago and former district attorney, had an easy time defeating William A. Paschall, wholesale meat dealer who ran with no visible means of political support. Democratic incumbent Joseph S. Clark, Jr., a potential senatorial candidate next year, declined to run again.

Longstreth, who received support from GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall, scored a 8-5 victory over George P. Williams, 3d, a 35-year-old former attorney general, Magistrate James J. Clothier and Oscar H. Newman trailed in that order.

THE LACK of a race of statewide interest kept the primary vote down to an estimated 35 to 40 per cent of the 2,745,322 Republicans and 2,110,643 Democrats eligible to vote.

Complete unofficial returns gave Longstreth 81,485; Williams 53,728; Clothier 44,177 and Newman 6,657. Dilworth received 83,677 and Paschall 7,315.

Dismissal Turned Down

Albany, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—A federal judge has turned down motions to dismiss the charges that Jackson M. Potter conspired to misapply $1,684,765 through overdrafts of his accounts at the Syracuse Trust Co. Judge Stephen W. Brennan yesterday denied a defense move to dismiss all 23 counts against Potter, a 55-year-old Syracuse realtor. The action came after the government rested its case in the trial in District Court. Potter went on trial for the second time May 9. He was convicted in his first trial at Syracuse but the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals threw out the conviction.

Nevada Gets Lesson

Reno, Nev., May 18 (AP)—The state of Nevada, which thinks it knows how to pinch pennies, got a lesson from wealthy New York yesterday. Letters received by the Nevada Tax Commission from the New York Department of Taxation and finance were enclosed in envelopes printed nearly a quarter of a century ago. They still listed Alfred E. Smith as governor, although he left office in 1928.

He was discharged yesterday from Potsdam Hospital, where his right leg was amputated after it was shattered by rifle bullets in the capture May 2. La Shomb's companion, Frank (The Hook) Talarico, 44, of Utica, was shot to death when troopers trapped the pair sleeping in a field. A coroner declared it was justifiable homicide. Two other men who broke out with them were recaptured separately.

Banker Catches Robber in Crash

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—The husky manager of a newly opened suburban bank single-handedly captured a lone gunman who held up the bank and fled with more than $2,000 in cash.

When the gunman drove away from the St. Clair Shores National Bank late yesterday Manager Bernard St. Germaine vaulted over the counter, raced to his own car and gave chase.

For a mile and a half at speeds up to 70 miles an hour, the two cars whirled along busy thoroughfares.

Then a cement truck lumbered into an intersection and the robber's car plowed into it. St. Germaine shouted to bystanders:

"Grab that man; he just robbed a bank!"

NOBODY MOVED, so St. Germaine grabbed him himself. He held the man until police arrived, then picked up the money which had spilled into the street.

Semi-dazed by the crash, the man offered no resistance.

"All right, you got me," he said. "Don't worry. I won't do anything.

Police identified him as Charles J. Cadaret, 21, of Detroit, and held him for the FBI for investigation of bank robbery.

HAWAII-ALASKA YO-YO

At one time or another in recent years, both houses of Congress have voted statehood for both Hawaii and Alaska. The trouble is, the actions have never been coordinated. And now the effort has failed again.

If this keeps on, the statehood issue is likely to become as hardy a perennial as the St. Lawrence seaway project used to be. For nearly three decades the seaway project was as much a fixture of the Washington scene as the Capitol dome.

Three times the House has approved statehod for Hawaii, once for Alaska. The Senate once endorsed a measure providing that status for both. This time the House considered a similar joint statehood bill, and wound up shelving it. The Senate plans to let the matter drop.

The statehood story thus far is a pretty sad chapter in congressional history. Both major parties plugged for statehood for both Hawaii and Alaska in their 1952 platforms. Up to now they have redeemed these promises in wooden nickels.

Not only are they falling down on their promises. The lawmakers are making a travesty of the American tradition of open-handed acceptance of growth and progress.

It's customary to cast aspersions on American politicians of the late 19th and early 20th centuries as being rather low-grade operators. But at least they had a more fluid attitude than some of their present day counterparts toward expanding the country's roster of states.

They would not have thought to raise some of the flimsy arguments that have now been posted against statehood for developing territories. Over the last few years, some of these arguments have changed and some have remained the same. They hardly deserve reviewing, since mostly they are camouflage.

The real reasons why Hawaii and Alaska continue to be treated as outcasts are political. Members of Congress fear what the addition of four new senators and a handful of new representatives will do to the political balance—and to their favorite prejudices.

One thing seems certain. These endless half-hearted attempts to put over statehood are embarrassing to the United States as a nation reputedly receptive to progress. It would be better if the Hawaii-Alaska issue were put aside indefinitely, until such time as the composition of Congress is altered to include more men who put the nation's ideals and goals ahead of their personal political prejudices and fears.

The true test of a birthday's meaning is whether the date is quickly forgotten instead of anxiously remembered.

THE RECORD

We seem to be well into the new pact-making season with the Communists. Optimism runs high in some quarters that the Reds are in a congenial mood and may really relax the Cold War a little.

Whenever enthusiasm mounts in this fashion, it is well to look back and see how Communists execute agreements they make. Some of their major postwar violations are of course an old story now. But they've been breaking the newer agreements, too.

As a prime exhibit, we can offer last year's Indochina truce. Among the provisions was one in which the Vietminh Reds agreed to allow residents of North Viet Nam to leave that Communist-acquired land for South Viet Nam if they wished.

Evidence in the hands of the International Control Commission indicates, however, that the Vietminh leaders have presented the departure of hundreds of thousands who want to leave. Recently Canadian Foreign Minister Lester Pearson said that unless more time is allowed for the refugee movement, these people will be trapped in Communist hands.

In the larger picture this might seem to some a minor affair. It isn't. The sanctity of an agreement affecting human freedom is at stake.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

G.A.W.

Apparently when a thesis that requires full study and accommodation to the national economy is given a cryptic title and is symbolized by initials, it is accepted rather by title and initials than by substance. G.A.W. means Guaranteed Annual Wage, a system already in vogue in many enterprises.

In most industries, the assured annual wage is more difficult than in, say, a slaughter house, because the sale of the commodity may be seasonal or on order. Automobiles are an example of a seasonal industry; structural steel of an on order industry. There is much talk these days of the peaks and valleys in industry being levelled off, but in this conversation, the fact that a large share of production has, for more than a decade, been war production or what is euphemistically called defense production, is too often forgotten. Do we require war or the preparation for war to have full employment?

Walter Reuther's proposal is to supplement State unemployment compensation by the employer which is not exactly a guaranteed wage for work done. What the United Automobile Workers demand is that the Guaranteed Annual Wage plus Unemployment Compensation should be equal to the present take-home pay. This would only apply to those workers who have acquired seniority according to the union-company contract.

One of the problems that faces every worker in every industry in this country is what is called "automation." This is the growing fear among workers that the development of labor-saving and automatic machinery will result in reduced employment or unemployment.

While it is demonstrable that in the past, machines have made jobs, it is also demonstrable that in particular industries, automatic devices have become so perfected that few workers are necessary. It is not contended by anyone associated with either management or labor that the use of automatic devices should be reduced or curtailed; the point is made and has to be considered seriously that no interim period should be permitted to exist during which the purchasing power of large numbers of Americans should be sharply reduced or altogether removed, forcing them on the dole.

In a word, granted that new knowledge and techniques can free human beings from irksome and onerous toil and produce an abundance heretofore unknown, the task remains to minimize the perils of job displacement and family hardships.

It seems to me that this is so serious a problem that it cannot be solved by a strike which will not remove the problem no matter who wins. Involved in all this is the question of the smaller business which is being squeezed out of existence by taxes, wages, beneficial financing by the larger companies and the huge cost of advertising, particularly since the advent of television.

The question is whether it is beneficial to the American economy and to social conditions in this country if only huge monopolistic companies exist. That will not be solved by Attorney General Herbert Brownell's plethora of anti-trust suits, because if it requires say a quarter of a million dollars to buy one automatic machine to be on a competitive basis with an enormous firm, the small man cannot go into that sort of business. If Brownell breaks up large enterprises to prevent monopoly, he still cannot tell small men how they can set up businesses which require huge capital outlays to get started and to reach a break-even point.

Nor is the solution to this problem government-control of industry on either a Fascist or a Socialist basis. That would involve us in more problems, and less pleasant ones, than we face today.

In the older days of the free market, competition would solve the problem. But we are not living in the older days nor do we have a free market. We live in a mixed economy, a condition prolonged by the continuance of war-like conditions.

The solution does lie in management-labor studies as to how to protect not only the wage but the community life of the worker. We know, from experience during the Depression, that the major problem of unemployment is not the discomfiture of the individual, who can be put on the dole, but the reduced purchasing power of the entire population which leads to vast social and even political changes, some of which are antagonistic to a free society.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

THE ARTIFICIAL HIP

One of the sad things we quite frequently hear about is a fracture of the hip which fails to heal in an elderly person. Many an older person manages to keep active enough to feel useful in spite of their age, but if hip disease, or a fracture which does not quite unite or heal, occurs, so that they can no longer get about and are utterly dependent upon friends or family, a sense of uselessness and despondency develops.

It is felt that the weakest point in the bony system of the elderly person is apt to be the hip. The main reason is that the blood supply to the hip has to follow such a roundabout route that it is particularly apt to be subject to injury. On top of this there are the changes so often present in old age due to hardening of the arteries through which the blood flows. This brings on an increased brittleness or weakness of the bone which is then more likely to fracture. There is also a decreased blood supply which may delay healing and result in fractures not healing.

To help these people, surgeons have attempted many different types of hip operations to try to rebuild the hip but these have proved disappointing in very many cases. We now read in the magazine "Geriatrics" of the idea of an artificial hip made of stainless steel, Vitallium, or acrylic, which holds forth new hope for the elderly person who has lost the use of his hip. The damaged head of the thigh bone is removed and a replacement, made of one of the above materials, is substituted. This substitute head has a stem which is inserted into the remaining bone.

Although it is too early to know definitely what the final results will be in this new type of operation for the hip, results so far have been very encouraging. There are, of course, many cases in which it cannot be used: where the bones have become brittle or soft; where there has been previous infection and particularly in cases where lack of cooperation, laziness, or other reasons which might prevent patients from carrying out the activities and exercises during their convalescence which are absolutely necessary. The operation is particularly worthless in a bedridden patient whose condition prevents him from ever walking again.

This type of operation is known as "endoprosthesis," which comes from "endo" meaning "within" and "prosthesis" which means an artificial part. Because it is an artificial part, it needs no blood supply which, as we have remarked above, is apt to be decreased in the elderly person. The material used will not cause irritation, or breakdown of the tissues and works normally for many years.

Sometimes results seemed disappointing after six months had elapsed since operation but improvement and recovery appeared usually after about nine months. An encouraging point about it was that many patients seemed able to restore themselves to activity around the home without requiring elaborate physiotherapy—heat, massage, etc.

This is a hopeful sign of how surgeons are working on the problems of the senior citizens.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington, (NEA) — Three-year extension of the reciprocal trade agreements program in some form satisfactory to the Eisenhower administration now seems assured by Congress. The next stop will be to secure passage of new legislation setting up OTC — the Organization for Trade Cooperation.

This is something new in name but not in principle. A smoke screen of artificial complexity is being thrown around it to make it look difficult.

The Eisenhower administration will attempt to beat down the opposition with this line of explanation:

The trade agreements renewal act will continue the President's authority to adjust U. S. tariffs under specified limitations. All presidents have had this authority since the original trade agreements act was passed in 1934.

In the beginning these adjustments were negotiated separately with other countries. At one time the U. S. had 29 of these agreements. It still has 10 today.

BUT IN 1947, at Geneva, Switzerland, 23 of the principal trading countries of the world agreed to negotiate these tariff adjustments jointly, instead of one at a time. This was the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, known as GATT. It has now been functioning effectively for seven years.

Thirty-four countries having over 80 per cent of the world trade have now subscribed to GATT. It covers tariff concessions on over 50,000 items.

Because of the number of these agreements, an impression has been given that GATT is a tremendously complicated thing.

Reduced to fundamentals, GATT serves two simple purposes:

Through regular meetings of the GATT country representatives, a friendly forum is provided for reducing the obstacles to expanding world trade. If some countries have high tariffs against American-made products, the U. S. can negotiate to lower these tariffs. In exchange we can lower the tariffs which this country has imposed on foreign exports.

Second, the GATT countries have drawn up a code of rules for international fair trade. This prevents, for example, the imposition of import quotas and discrimination against the exports of any of the contracting countries.

GATT has been revised three times since the end of the war. The last revision was concluded at Geneva in March.

Included in the amendments was a proposal to set up a permanent organization to carry on the work of GATT between its semiannual meetings of the 34 countries.

In the past, whenever any new issue came up between sessions, a complicated, time-consuming postal ballot had to be taken in 34 capitals. It was discovered that what GATT needed was a permanent secretariat and a standing group to administer its affairs full time.

THIS IS ALL the proposed OTC—Organization for Trade Cooperation—will be. The U. S. share of GATT costs has been only $60,000 a year in the past. OTC won't cost much more.

Rep. Jere Cooper (D.-Tenn.) Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has introduced a bill to authorize U. S. membership in OTC and give it congressional approval. Hearings on this measure are expected to open within a month.

There is some possibility that Congress may not complete action on the Cooper bill this session. Opposition may be stronger than expected, although the Eisenhower administration is pushing for early passage.

If OTC is not approved it will not mean the death of GATT nor will it seriously cripple the effectiveness of the reciprocal trade agreements program.

In considering the legislation to set up OTC, Congress will necessarily review the work of GATT. But GATT is after all an executive agreement approved by the President under powers given to him by the trade agreements act. GATT is not a treaty that must be ratified by the U. S. Senate.

OTC will not come into being until countries having 80 per cent of the GATT trade have approved it. Since the U. S. and the U. K. each has 20 per cent of this volume of trade, disapproval by either country would kill it.

Russia's Play for Tito Has Been Steady Campaign Through Various Moves

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Bonn, May 17—Something of the alarm which has swept Europe since Moscow announced that there would be a conference "at the summit" in Belgrade between Bulganin and Khrushchev, on the one hand, and Marshal Tito, on the other, is expressed in a cartoon on the front page of "Die Welt," a leading newspaper here. It shows Marshal Tito in uniform with the Stars and Stripes as an insigne on one shoulder and the hammer and sickle of Soviet Russia on the other, with this caption: "Will he wear them on both shoulders?"

There can be no doubt that the whole Western alliance has received a shock over something which they should long ago have suspected. For in the last year and a half the steady campaign carried on by Moscow to win Tito back to the fold has been revealed in a series of moves which were minimized in the West but which finally bore fruit. It is true that Tito has reassured the Western democracies that he has no intention of abandoning his ties with them, but what has not yet been disclosed is that he may not be able to control his own destiny and that the break with the West may develop anyhow.

Here in Bonn, where they know a good deal about Yugoslav affairs and where they tend to look on the situation in the Balkans with a certain detachment now that Austria has been neutralized, the reports are conflicting concerning the origin and purposes of the Bulganin mission to Belgrade. Yugoslavs here insist that there will be no discussion about a resumption of ideological ties but only about practical problems in the diplomatic and economic relations of the two governments. Others say that the meeting is basically ideological because there has been a steady infiltration by Moscow Communists in Belgrade in recent months, and it is pointed out that Walter Ulbricht, leader of the Communist party in East Germany, soon is to make a trip to confer with leaders in Belgrade.

What it all seems to add up to is a definite effort on the part of Moscow to swing Tito away from the West, even though he may not allow himself to become a puppet of Moscow. So far as the Soviet Union is concerned, it may well be content with the addition of Yugoslavia to the neutral belt which has been started with the successful detachment of Austria from the West. Once a bloc of buffer states from the Mediterranean to the Baltic has been established, the Soviet regime can well afford to offer to pull back her own troops and insist that American troops go home. Western Europe would then be at the mercy of a gigantic land army of Russians which could become supreme, especially if Soviet propaganda succeeds in persuading the West to give up atomic weapons of mass destruction.

So the Soviet aim now is to spend the next three or four years in what looks outwardly like a relaxation of tension but which actually means a determined effort to win by a "cold war" certain vantage points that are necessary for the Soviet conquest of Europe in later years. On every side here, for example, leaders in the government warn that Soviet Russia is playing for the time needed to build economic strength for armament while she seeks disarmament of the West on atomic weapons and the weakening of the Western armies by a hoped-for program of neutralization, to include Germany.

Behind the scenes in all this is the crafty hand of Nehru and his stooge, Krishna Menon. It was Indian diplomacy that brought Tito to New Delhi a few weeks ago and a trade union delegation of Yugoslavs to Peiping. After the India visit, Tito proclaimed his belief in the necessity of admitting Red China to the United Nations, and his public declarations were completely at variance with what he knew to be the policy of the United States. Any true friend of the West would not have picked out unnecessary issues for a public statement, especially when it was known the viewpoint would be accepted widely as a criticism of United States policy.

The true story of what is happening inside Yugoslavia has yet to be told. There are evidances that Moscow has been conducting an intrigue among the hard-core Communists in Belgrade, faithful to the Soviet Union, who were recently released, and that, due to internal politics, Tito has found himself compelled to accept the friendly gestures of the Soviets, who are persuasively arguing that they are not asking him to become an ally and to line up against the West but merely to stay neutral, just as Austria is and as the Communists hope to persuade a reunited Germany to be.

These are anxious times for the West in the "cold war," and a counter-offensive boldly calling for the liberation of all the satellite states is certainly needed.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

New York (AP)—Would it help cut the divorce rate in America if every year we had a week dedicated to husband worship?

A hundred Hindu wives in India recently completed a five-day festival of husband worship. In one ceremony during the festival each wife washed her husband's feet, and a Hindu mystic expressed hope this rite "will end divorce."

Well, it was a heart warming thought. But would it work here? Many foreigners accuse Americans of woman worship. They feel our high divorce rate stems from the fact the ladies have too much power in this country—that a wife loses respect for a husband she can wear like a watchfob or dangle like a marionette.

Hmmmm. After all, we do celebrate things like National Dill Pickle Month. Why not set aside one measly week a year for husband worship? That would still leave us 51 weeks of wife worship—surely enough to keep any reasonable woman happy.

SO, FIRED up with the heady prospects of launching America's first annual worship your husband week, I broached the project to a guy I know whom everybody calls "the oldtimer." He is wise in the ways of marriage, a combat veteran scarred but unbroken by a 30-year tour of duty on the same matrimonial battlefront.

Somewhat to my surprise, the oldtime, after listening to my proposal, immediately threw cold water on it.

"Son, I know it sounds like heaven," he said, "but that's why it won't work. Heaven don't work on earth."

"You mean you wouldn't enjoy having your wife worship you for a week out of every year?" I asked.

"LORD A-MIGHTY, no!" he thundered. "I don't know how those Hindu men stood it, having their womenfolk coming around worshipping 'em and a-washing their feet for five whole days. Father's Day is almost more than I can bear, with my wife and kids behaving like simpering idiots seeing me for the first time. You haven't though this thing through."

"I don't get you," I murmured. "How?"

"WELL, FOR one thing, I bet you think American wives would resent a husband worshiping week and holler against having to wash the old man's feet, like Hindu ladies."

"Of course, they'd holler."

"That's how little you know about women," said the oldtimer. "Why, they'd go for it like a weasel goes for hen eggs.

"The wives would be fighting to show how much they worshipped their husbands. Every home soon would have a gilded bowl—something like the old shaving mugs—inscribed, 'Dear Daddykins — His Tootsie Bath.'

"THEY'D HAVE all kinds of precious papa foot soaps on the market — perfumed naturally. Wives would be trading foot bath recipes, there'd be national televised contests to pick America's leading foot-washing wife.

"Don't you think that's a bit overdrawn, oldtimer?"

"Not at all," he replied. "A husband worship week would be one long hell. A man couldn't move. He'd be so smothered in feminine adultation he'd be like a fly in a barrel of molasses. And that's the way his wife would like to have him.

"Son, when you worship something, it becomes your prisoner. Nothing with any sense really likes being worshipped. That's why women enjoy it. I fought my wife for 20 years before I found out the secret of how to beat her—which was, to worship her.

I QUIT BEING her slave the day I told her I worshipped her. I've been telling her that ever since. When you keep telling a woman you worship her, she has to let you have your own way—for fear you'll stop telling her. If there's a slave in the family now, well—it ain't me."

The oldtimer paused for breath.

"Let's have no more nonsense about husband worship," he said. "A thing like that could snowball and ruin every sensible marriage in America.

"Any husband who lets his wife put him on a pedestal will find he's turned his home into a museum and himself into a piece of statuary."

HAWAII-ALASKA YO-YO

At one time or another in recent years, both houses of Congress have voted statehood for both Hawaii and Alaska. The trouble is, the actions have never been coordinated. And now the effort has failed again.

If this keeps on, the statehood issue is likely to become as hardy a perennial as the St. Lawrence seaway project used to be. For nearly three decades the seaway project was as much a fixture of the Washington scene as the Capitol dome.

Three times the House has approved statehod for Hawaii, once for Alaska. The Senate once endorsed a measure providing that status for both. This time the House considered a similar joint statehood bill, and wound up shelving it. The Senate plans to let the matter drop.

The statehood story thus far is a pretty sad chapter in congressional history. Both major parties plugged for statehood for both Hawaii and Alaska in their 1952 platforms. Up to now they have redeemed these promises in wooden nickels.

Not only are they falling down on their promises. The lawmakers are making a travesty of the American tradition of open-handed acceptance of growth and progress.

It's customary to cast aspersions on American politicians of the late 19th and early 20th centuries as being rather low-grade operators. But at least they had a more fluid attitude than some of their present day counterparts toward expanding the country's roster of states.

They would not have thought to raise some of the flimsy arguments that have now been posted against statehood for developing territories. Over the last few years, some of these arguments have changed and some have remained the same. They hardly deserve reviewing, since mostly they are camouflage.

The real reasons why Hawaii and Alaska continue to be treated as outcasts are political. Members of Congress fear what the addition of four new senators and a handful of new representatives will do to the political balance—and to their favorite prejudices.

One thing seems certain. These endless half-hearted attempts to put over statehood are embarrassing to the United States as a nation reputedly receptive to progress. It would be better if the Hawaii-Alaska issue were put aside indefinitely, until such time as the composition of Congress is altered to include more men who put the nation's ideals and goals ahead of their personal political prejudices and fears.

The true test of a birthday's meaning is whether the date is quickly forgotten instead of anxiously remembered.

THE RECORD

We seem to be well into the new pact-making season with the Communists. Optimism runs high in some quarters that the Reds are in a congenial mood and may really relax the Cold War a little.

Whenever enthusiasm mounts in this fashion, it is well to look back and see how Communists execute agreements they make. Some of their major postwar violations are of course an old story now. But they've been breaking the newer agreements, too.

As a prime exhibit, we can offer last year's Indochina truce. Among the provisions was one in which the Vietminh Reds agreed to allow residents of North Viet Nam to leave that Communist-acquired land for South Viet Nam if they wished.

Evidence in the hands of the International Control Commission indicates, however, that the Vietminh leaders have presented the departure of hundreds of thousands who want to leave. Recently Canadian Foreign Minister Lester Pearson said that unless more time is allowed for the refugee movement, these people will be trapped in Communist hands.

In the larger picture this might seem to some a minor affair. It isn't. The sanctity of an agreement affecting human freedom is at stake.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

G.A.W.

Apparently when a thesis that requires full study and accommodation to the national economy is given a cryptic title and is symbolized by initials, it is accepted rather by title and initials than by substance. G.A.W. means Guaranteed Annual Wage, a system already in vogue in many enterprises.

In most industries, the assured annual wage is more difficult than in, say, a slaughter house, because the sale of the commodity may be seasonal or on order. Automobiles are an example of a seasonal industry; structural steel of an on order industry. There is much talk these days of the peaks and valleys in industry being levelled off, but in this conversation, the fact that a large share of production has, for more than a decade, been war production or what is euphemistically called defense production, is too often forgotten. Do we require war or the preparation for war to have full employment?

Walter Reuther's proposal is to supplement State unemployment compensation by the employer which is not exactly a guaranteed wage for work done. What the United Automobile Workers demand is that the Guaranteed Annual Wage plus Unemployment Compensation should be equal to the present take-home pay. This would only apply to those workers who have acquired seniority according to the union-company contract.

One of the problems that faces every worker in every industry in this country is what is called "automation." This is the growing fear among workers that the development of labor-saving and automatic machinery will result in reduced employment or unemployment.

While it is demonstrable that in the past, machines have made jobs, it is also demonstrable that in particular industries, automatic devices have become so perfected that few workers are necessary. It is not contended by anyone associated with either management or labor that the use of automatic devices should be reduced or curtailed; the point is made and has to be considered seriously that no interim period should be permitted to exist during which the purchasing power of large numbers of Americans should be sharply reduced or altogether removed, forcing them on the dole.

In a word, granted that new knowledge and techniques can free human beings from irksome and onerous toil and produce an abundance heretofore unknown, the task remains to minimize the perils of job displacement and family hardships.

It seems to me that this is so serious a problem that it cannot be solved by a strike which will not remove the problem no matter who wins. Involved in all this is the question of the smaller business which is being squeezed out of existence by taxes, wages, beneficial financing by the larger companies and the huge cost of advertising, particularly since the advent of television.

The question is whether it is beneficial to the American economy and to social conditions in this country if only huge monopolistic companies exist. That will not be solved by Attorney General Herbert Brownell's plethora of anti-trust suits, because if it requires say a quarter of a million dollars to buy one automatic machine to be on a competitive basis with an enormous firm, the small man cannot go into that sort of business. If Brownell breaks up large enterprises to prevent monopoly, he still cannot tell small men how they can set up businesses which require huge capital outlays to get started and to reach a break-even point.

Nor is the solution to this problem government-control of industry on either a Fascist or a Socialist basis. That would involve us in more problems, and less pleasant ones, than we face today.

The solution does lie in management-labor studies as to how to protect not only the wage but the community life of the worker. We know, from experience during the Depression, that the major problem of unemployment is not the discomfiture of the individual, who can be put on the dole, but the reduced purchasing power of the entire population which leads to vast social and even political changes, some of which are antagonistic to a free society.

The trade agreements renewal act will continue the President's authority to adjust U. S. tariffs under specified limitations. All presidents have had this authority since the original trade agreements act was passed in 1934.

In the beginning these adjustments were negotiated separately with other countries. At one time the U. S. had 29 of these agreements. It still has 10 today.

BUT IN 1947, at Geneva, Switzerland, 23 of the principal trading countries of the world agreed to negotiate these tariff adjustments jointly, instead of one at a time. This was the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, known as GATT. It has now been functioning effectively for seven years.

Thirty-four countries having over 80 per cent of the world trade have now subcsribed to GATT. It covers tariff concessions on over 50,000 items.

Because of the number of these agreements, an impression has been given that GATT is a tremendously complicated thing.

Reduced to fundamentals, GATT serves two simple purposes:

Through regular meetings of the GATT country representatives, a friendly forum is provided for reducing the obstacles to expanding world trade. If some countries have high tariffs against American-made products, the U. S. can negotiate to lower these tariffs. In exchange we can lower the tariffs which this country has imposed on foreign exports.

Second, the GATT countries have drawn up a code of rules for international fair trade. This prevents, for example, the imposition of import quotas and discrimination against the exports of any of the contracting countries.

GATT has been revised three times since the end of the war. The last revision was concluded at Geneva in March.

Included in the amendments was a proposal to set up a permanent organization to carry on the work of GATT between its semiannual meetings of the 34 countries.

In the past, whenever any new issue came up between sessions, a complicated, time-consuming postal ballot had to be taken in 34 capitals. It was discovered that what GATT needed was a permanent secretariat and a standing group to administer its affairs full time.

THIS IS ALL the proposed OTC—Organization for Trade Cooperation—will be. The U. S. share of GATT costs has been only $60,000 a year in the past. OTC won't cost much more.

Rep. Jere Cooper (D.-Tenn.) Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has introduced a bill to authorize U. S. membership in OTC and give it congressional approval. Hearings on this measure are expected to open within a month.

There is some possibility that Congress may not complete action on the Cooper bill this session. Opposition may be stronger than expected, although the Eisenhower administration is pushing for early passage.

If OTC is not approved it will not mean the death of GATT nor will it seriously cripple the effectiveness of the reciprocal trade agreements program.

In considering the legislation to set up OTC, Congress will necessarily review the work of GATT. But GATT is after all an executive agreement approved by the President under powers given to him by the trade agreements act. GATT is not a treaty that must be ratified by the U. S. Senate.

OTC will not come into being until countries having 80 per cent of the GATT trade have approved it. Since the U. S. and the U. K. each has 20 per cent of this volume of trade, disapproval by either country would kill it.

Russia's Play for Tito Has Been Steady Campaign Through Various Moves

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Bonn, May 17—Something of the alarm which has swept Europe since Moscow announced that there would be a conference "at the summit" in Belgrade between Bulganin and Khrushchev, on the one hand, and Marshal Tito, on the other, is expressed in a cartoon on the front page of "Die Welt," a leading newspaper here. It shows Marshal Tito in uniform with the Stars and Stripes as an insigne on one shoulder and the hammer and sickle of Soviet Russia on the other, with this caption: "Will he wear them on both shoulders?"

There can be no doubt that the whole Western alliance has received a shock over something which they should long ago have suspected. For in the last year and a half the steady campaign carried on by Moscow to win Tito back to the fold has been revealed in a series of moves which were minimized in the West but which finally bore fruit. It is true that Tito has reassured the Western democracies that he has no intention of abandoning his ties with them, but what has not yet been disclosed is that he may not be able to control his own destiny and that the break with the West may develop anyhow.

Here in Bonn, where they know a good deal about Yugoslav affairs and where they tend to look on the situation in the Balkans with a certain detachment now that Austria has been neutralized, the reports are conflicting concerning the origin and purposes of the Bulganin mission to Belgrade. Yugoslavs here insist that there will be no discussion about a resumption of ideological ties but only about practical problems in the diplomatic and economic relations of the two governments. Others say that the meeting is basically ideological because there has been a steady infiltration by Moscow Communists in Belgrade in recent months, and it is pointed out that Walter Ulbricht, leader of the Communist party in East Germany, soon is to make a trip to confer with leaders in Belgrade.

What it all seems to add up to is a definite effort on the part of Moscow to swing Tito away from the West, even though he may not allow himself to become a puppet of Moscow. So far as the Soviet Union is concerned, it may well be content with the addition of Yugoslavia to the neutral belt which has been started with the successful detachment of Austria from the West. Once a bloc of buffer states from the Mediterranean to the Baltic has been established, the Soviet regime can well afford to offer to pull back her own troops and insist that American troops go home. Western Europe would then be at the mercy of a gigantic land army of Russians which could become supreme, especially if Soviet propaganda succeeds in persuading the West to give up atomic weapons of mass destruction.

So the Soviet aim now is to spend the next three or four years in what looks outwardly like a relaxation of tension but which actually means a determined effort to win by a "cold war" certain vantage points that are necessary for the Soviet conquest of Europe in later years. On every side here, for example, leaders in the government warn that Soviet Russia is playing for the time needed to build economic strength for armament while she seeks disarmament of the West on atomic weapons and the weakening of the Western armies by a hoped-for program of neutralization, to include Germany.

Behind the scenes in all this is the crafty hand of Nehru and his stooge, Krishna Menon. It was Indian diplomacy that brought Tito to New Delhi a few weeks ago and a trade union delegation of Yugoslavs to Peiping. After the India visit, Tito proclaimed his belief in the necessity of admitting Red China to the United Nations, and his public declarations were completely at variance with what he knew to be the policy of the United States. Any true friend of the West would not have picked out unnecessary issues for a public statement, especially when it was known the viewpoint would be accepted widely as a criticism of United States policy.

The true story of what is happening inside Yugoslavia has yet to be told. There are evidances that Moscow has been conducting an intrigue among the hard-core Communists in Belgrade, faithful to the Soviet Union, who were recently released, and that, due to internal politics, Tito has found himself compelled to accept the friendly gestures of the Soviets, who are persuasively arguing that they are not asking him to become an ally and to line up against the West but merely to stay neutral, just as Austria is and as the Communists hope to persuade a reunited Germany to be.

These are anxious times for the West in the "cold war," and a counter-offensive boldly calling for the liberation of all the satellite states is certainly needed.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

New York (AP)—Would it help cut the divorce rate in America if every year we had a week dedicated to husband worship?

A hundred Hindu wives in India recently completed a five-day festival of husband worship. In one ceremony during the festival each wife washed her husband's feet, and a Hindu mystic expressed hope this rite "will end divorce."

Well, it was a heart warming thought. But would it work here? Many foreigners accuse Americans of woman worship. They feel our high divorce rate stems from the fact the ladies have too much power in this country—that a wife loses respect for a husband she can wear like a watchfob or dangle like a marionette.

Hmmmm. After all, we do celebrate things like National Dill Pickle Month. Why not set aside one measly week a year for husband worship? That would still leave us 51 weeks of wife worship—surely enough to keep any reasonable woman happy.

SO, FIRED up with the heady prospects of launching America's first annual worship your husband week, I broached the project to a guy I know whom everybody calls "the oldtimer." He is wise in the ways of marriage, a combat veteran scarred but unbroken by a 30-year tour of duty on the same matrimonial battlefront.

Somewhat to my surprise, the oldtime, after listening to my proposal, immediately threw cold water on it.

"Son, I know it sounds like heaven," he said, "but that's why it won't work. Heaven don't work on earth."

"You mean you wouldn't enjoy having your wife worship you for a week out of every year?" I asked.

"LORD A-MIGHTY, no!" he thundered. "I don't know how those Hindu men stood it, having their womenfolk coming around worshipping 'em and a-washing their feet for five whole days. Father's Day is almost more than I can bear, with my wife and kids behaving like simpering idiots seeing me for the first time. You haven't though this thing through."

"I don't get you," I murmured. "How?"

"WELL, FOR one thing, I bet you think American wives would resent a husband worshiping week and holler against having to wash the old man's feet, like Hindu ladies."

"Of course, they'd holler."

"That's how little you know about women," said the oldtimer. "Why, they'd go for it like a weasel goes for hen eggs.

"The wives would be fighting to show how much they worshipped their husbands. Every home soon would have a gilded bowl—something like the old shaving mugs—inscribed, 'Dear Daddykins — His Tootsie Bath.'

"THEY'D HAVE all kinds of precious papa foot soaps on the market — perfumed naturally. Wives would be trading foot bath recipes, there'd be national televised contests to pick America's leading foot-washing wife.

"Don't you think that's a bit overdrawn, oldtimer?"

"Not at all," he replied. "A husband worship week would be one long hell. A man couldn't move. He'd be so smothered in feminine adultation he'd be like a fly in a barrel of molasses. And that's the way his wife would like to have him.

"Son, when you worship something, it becomes your prisoner. Nothing with any sense really likes being worshipped. That's why women enjoy it. I fought my wife for 20 years before I found out the secret of how to beat her—which was, to worship her.

I QUIT BEING her slave the day I told her I worshipped her. I've been telling her that ever since. When you keep telling a woman you worship her, she has to let you have your own way—for fear you'll stop telling her. If there's a slave in the family now, well—it ain't me."

The oldtimer paused for breath.

"Let's have no more nonsense about husband worship," he said. "A thing like that could snowball and ruin every sensible marriage in America.

"Any husband who lets his wife put him on a pedestal will find he's turned his home into a museum and himself into a piece of statuary."

2-Heart Bid Looks Good in This Hand

By OSWALD JOCOBY
Written for NEA Service

Some players would open today's North hand with a bid of two hearts rather than only one. It is probably the right course, for then North can afford to make moderate and mild rebids.

As it was, North opened with only one heart and then discovered that he had no reasonable way of showing his great strength at his second turn. He had to drive towards a slam, with no way of stopping anywhere between one spade and five spades. In fact, where South's response of five diamonds showed an ace, North had to push on to six spades.

West opened the queen of diamonds, and South won with the king. Declarer then led a spade, playing the king from the dummy.

This gave East his chance to be a hero. He merely refused to take this first trump trick. This simple play had a profound effect.

South had to lead a second trump since he couldn't begin to ruff out hearts while he was exposed to an overruff. East took the second round of trumps with the ace and promptly led back a third trump. It was for this purpose that he had refused the first trump.

Now South was doomed, and he knew it. He could ruff only one of dummy's low hearts, and the suit did not establish with one ruff. A heart trick had to be given up, and the contract was down one.

South would have made his slam contract if East had taken the first trump. Even if East had then returned a trump, declarer would still have two trumps left in his hand. He would take the ace of hearts, ruff a heart, get to dummy with a club, ruff another heart, and return to dummy with a diamond ruff to draw the last trump. Dummy would then be good.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

The brainwashing we have taken on the disUnited Nations is something for history to write about. For fifteen years you'd a' thought that "aggression" is a simple sin we should all be happy to die to prevent.

Mr. Hutton

Well, sir, a United Nations Committee has spent many months trying to agree on what "aggression" means. They have given it up as a bad job.

Poland was carved up by Stalin, with the consent of Roosevelt and Churchill. If the Poles went to war to get their land back, would they be "aggressors"? Would we have to fight the Poles?

Then there's East Germany, parts of which Roosevelt and Churchill also turned over to good old Joe. We are not allies of West Germany. If our allies went to war to get back East Germany, would we have to join up with the Reds to make war on our allies?

In my book, the Reds are strong for the disUnited Nations and this "aggression" nonsense we have trapped ourselves in. As long as this weird superstition lasts, the Reds can hold their loot and seem virtuous in doing so.

How do you feel about the United Nations, neighbor?

Despondent Man Plans Funeral, Takes Own Life

Oyster Bay Cove, May 18 (AP)—On Monday, Ernest Woolard, well-to-do interior decorator, visited a funeral parlor. He said he wanted to arrange for a funeral for a member of the family who was near death.

He wrote down the precise cost of each item. He chose a simple pine casket, and listed the prayers to be said. He ordered the burial in a Washington, D. C. cemetery.

THEN HE WENT home and wrote a note to an old friend, Police Lt. C. Russell Haff. It said "you will find my body in the jeep in the garage in the event my wife doesn't find me first."

Woolard's wife found the body yesterday. The jeep was covered with a canvas, and a hose was rigged to the exhaust. Police ruled the death a suicide from carbon monoxide.

Haff didn't get the note until later.

POLICE SAID Woolard, 54, was despondent over his 18-year-old son, John, who is in jail on a rape charge.

The youth was arrested last month on complaint of Maryanne Joyce, a pretty 20-year-old redhead from nearby Glen Cove. She said young Woolard raped her in his car after their second date.

The youth is married and father of one child. Police said his wife, from whom he is separated, expects another.

When young Woolard was charged with rape, his father posted $5,000 bail.

BUT TWO WEEKS ago, police said, the youth grabbed his mother by the hair and ordered her to cook his breakfast.

The elder Woolard hit him on the head with a coffee pot. Then he went to Nassau county court in Mineola and revoked the bail. The youth was rearrested and jailed.

Last Saturday, Woolard took a package of food and clothing to jail but did not ask to see his son.

Then, on Monday, he started to make plans for his own funeral.

The Woolards have one other son, 21-year-old Robert.

Believe Murderer Sends Post Cards

Niagara Falls, May 18 (AP)—Police held a strong hunch today that two postcards received by friends of Norman G. Yesny were sent by Yesny's murderer.

Detective Lt. George M. Cruickshank said last night the cards were postmarked May 14 from Draper, S. D. Yesny's bullet-riddled body was found May 7 in a ditch near Calgary, Alta.

Cruickshank said each postcard bore the crudely lettered message: "Still going strong. Norman."

He said the murderer, possibly unaware that Yesny's body had been found, was using the postcards to delay inquiry by friends and relatives on Yesny's whereabouts.

Cruickshank said the murderer quite likely obtained the names of the friends from Yesny's personal effects.

Yesny, 23-year-old army veteran, was driving to Alaska when he was robbed and slain, apparently by a hitchhiker, police said.

ByrdSeesChanges To Be Made in ForeignTradeBill

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D.-Va.) said today he expects most of the changes made by the Senate in President Eisenhower's foreign trade bill to be incorporated in the final version since the White House has agreed to them.

Byrd commented in advance of the first closed-door session of Senate-House conferees assigned to work out a compromise of varying versions passed by the two branches. Byrd heads the Senate conferees.

Some dissatisfaction was evident in the ranks of House Democrats. One of their conferees, Rep. Mills (D.-Ark.), declared in a separate interview Eisenhower "was very ill-advised to say he would accept these amendments."

"THE ONLY conclusion I can reach is that the President has surrendered to the protective tariff wing of his party," Mills said.

A White House letter to Byrd and Rep. Cooper (D.-Tenn.), head of the House delegation, agreed to all the Senate amendments but one. It was signed by Gerald D. Morgan, special counsel to the President.

The Senate version retained the key points of Eisenhower's original proposals, and thus they are sure to be in the final bill. These would extend the reciprocal trade agreements law three years and give the President new authority to cut tariffs 15 per cent.

THE SENATE change on which House Democrats center their fire was sponsored by Sen. Millikin (R.-Colo.) to broaden opportunities for industries to seek relief in escape clause cases.

Other Senate amendments would knock out House-approved authority for the President to cut in half duties on items imported in negligible quantities, give him power to impose higher tariffs or quotas where necessary to protect an industry essential to national security, and eliminate the possibility of double tariff cuts on items now under negotiation in a Japanese trade pact.

Ann Street Family Reports Clothes Theft

The theft of a suitcase and clothing from her husband's automobile was reported to police Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. George Jacobson of 42 Ann street.

Jacobson said the articles may have been taken while the automobile was parked in front of his home, or earlier when it was parked in New York city on 89th street near Central Park West, according to the police.

Listed as missing were a suitcase, a gray flannel suit valued at $60, one pair of oxford black shoes, two gray shirts, ties and underwear.

Entry apparently was made by prying open the left front ventilator window, Jacobson reported.

Move to Get Bail Made for Kluckhon

Raleigh, N. C., May 18 (AP)—The attorney for Richard Kluckhohn has taken steps to have him released on bond while awaiting trial on a charge of murder.

Howard Manning filed a petition with the Superior Court yesterday asking for a habeas corpus writ. He contends the state showed insufficient evidence at a preliminary hearing Monday to warrant holding the youth without bond.

Kluckhohn, 21, of Evanston, Ill., described as a gun fancier and brilliant anthropology student, is accused in the fatal shooting last Friday of Miss Bernie Seawell, 43, government employe of Arlington, Va.

Police said a shot fired from a hotel room occupied by Kluckhorn hit Miss Seawell as she and a sister were standing at a parking lot. Kluckhorn claims his German luger pistol discharged accidentally.

250,000 volunteers a year to be given six months' special training to be followed by 7½ years' active reserve duty. The volunteers, between 17-19 years old, would save 18 months from the 2 years of active duty required of draftees. But they would put in this time in reserve duty.

REP. BARDEN (D.-N.C.) said he intends to offer a counter proposal that would permit students to fulfill their entire military obligation by taking three months' training each summer for four years.

Brooks said he opposes this plan on grounds it would take 300,000 to 400,000 troops to act as trainers, thus creating "an unacceptable calculated risk."

Rep. Short (R.-Mo.) said he is considering an amendment to reduce the reserve obligation of trainees to four years. Pentagon spokesmen have opposed this idea, and Short was defeated when he offered the same amendment in the Armed Services Committee.

Short, senior Republican on the committee, told a reporter he may also offer a proposal to send the bill back to committee for further study — a move which, if successful, could sidetrack the measure for this session of Congress.

Ike Would . . .

emphasized these points last night. Eisenhower's reference to them today indicated that the United States may go into the meeting with the idea of trying to roll back the Iron Curtain.

The Zhukov question arose when Eisenhower was asked whether he would like to have Zhukov at the conference. Marshal Nikolai Bulganin as premier would be Russia's top representative at the conference. Zhukov would not necessarily go any more than Secretary of Defense Wilson would go for the United States.

Financial and Commercial

New York, May 18 (AP)—The stock market advanced smartly today with aircrafts showing some vigor.

In the early afternoon, prices were up 1 to 3 points in many departments. Losses were small.

Despite the rise in prices, business was maintained at a modest pace of around two million shares for the day. That compares with 1,900,000 shares traded in yesterday's slightly lower market.

The market was down sharply Monday and was off slightly yesterday when a mid-session recovery movement faded away. Today at the start, prices were higher, especially in aircrafts. All major divisions, however, did well including steels, motors, rubbers, chemicals, railroads, and oils.

George Would Wait For Big 4 Meeting

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Sen. George (D.-Ga.) said today any discussion with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai about relaxing tensions in the Far East should await a forthcoming top-level Big Four meeting.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he still favors a meeting with Chou despite conditions laid down by the Red Chinese leader early yesterday in renewing his offer to negotiate directly with the United States on Formosa.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R.-N. J.), a foreign relations committman, predicted "there will not be any talks with Chou under the conditions he has laid down."

Sen. Mansfield (D.-Mont.), another committeeman, said in a separate interview he hopes this country will insist on the release of imprisoned American fliers and detained U. S. civilians before it agrees to any meeting.

Truman May Get Role

United Nations, May 18 (AP)—President Eisenhower's announced plan for a late June visit to New England has raised the possibility former President Harry S. Truman will get the spotlighted role at the closing of the UN commemorative session in San Francisco. UN sources said yesterday Truman — who spoke at the closing session of the founding conference in San Francisco June 25, 1945—may be invited to make the closing speech of the anniversary meeting.

Says Progress Made

New York, May 18 (AP)—A federal mediator reported today that "substantial progress" had been made toward settlement of the month-old strike at the Sperry Gyroscope Co. plant at Lake Success, L. I. Sidney Sheiner made the announcement as weary negotiators were ending their 24th hour of almost continuous talks.

200 Scan Liberty Area for Prisoner

Liberty, May 18 (AP)—A posse of 200 men continued combing the nearby woods today for a handcuffed prisoner who fled from a police car yesterday.

The prisoner, Melvin Faison, 28, Negro, of (103 Broadway) Monticello, plunged into dense woods at nearby Mountaindale when Sullivan county Deputy Sheriff Laverne Boyer, who was guarding him in a car, turned away to light a cigarette.

BOYER FIRED several shots but Faison ducked around a building and darted into the woods, despite his handcuffs.

An all-night search through the woods, dotted with summer bungalows in this resort area, failed to provide any clues.

Police set up roadblocks on Route 17 near Monticello and on Route 52 near Woodburn.

FAISON HAD admitted burglarizing several unoccupied rooming houses at Mountaindale, taking plumbing and electrical fixtures, police said. He was charged with burglary.

He was arrested at his home Monday night and was lodged in the Monticello jail overnight. At the time of his escape he was being taken to Mountaindale after he agreed to point out the places he allegedly burglarized, police said.

Faison took his chance when two state troopers left the car to make a telephone call. When Boyer, the only other man in the car, turned away to light a cigarette, Faison opened the door with his manacled hands and darted out.

Man Kills Self

New York, May 18 (AP)—Vincent Palmieri, 56, of Maspeth, Queens, killed himself today with a bullet through his right temple. Police said he had been brooding over ill health. His body was found in the cellar of his home by his wife, Carmela. Palmieri, who operated a travel agency and money exchange in downtown Manhattan, retired in January because of his health.

Slasher Steals Car

Glen Cove, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—A man hidden in the back of her automobile suddenly started slashing Marcia Licenziato, 35, when she stopped for a traffic light today. When she leaped from the car suffering from cuts on the face, chest and back, her assailant drove away in the car. Patrolman Donald Krupka, on school crossing duty, saw her jump from the car and the man drive away. He did not fire because of fear of hitting some of the many children on the street.

See Boomb Work Off

London, May 18 (AP)—The Daily Express said today allied intelligence chiefs believe the Russians may have suspended work on the hydrogen bomb. The paper said the belief arose because Soviet scientists have not tested any improved version of the experimental H-bomb they exploded in August, 1953. "This weapon," the paper's science writer said, "had the power of only million tons of TNT, compared with the 15 million ton punch of the U. S. hydrogen bomb.

Federal parole officers said yesterday that Mrs. Dorothy Rose Blumberg, Maurice Braverman and Leroy H. Wood were freed during the weekend after serving three year sentences, less time off for good behavior.

Three major New York cooperatives have decided to ask that nine New Jersey counties and Rockland county of New York be added to the marketing area. The fourth, eastern milk producers, wants 12 New Jersey counties and parts of five New York counties as well as Rockland.

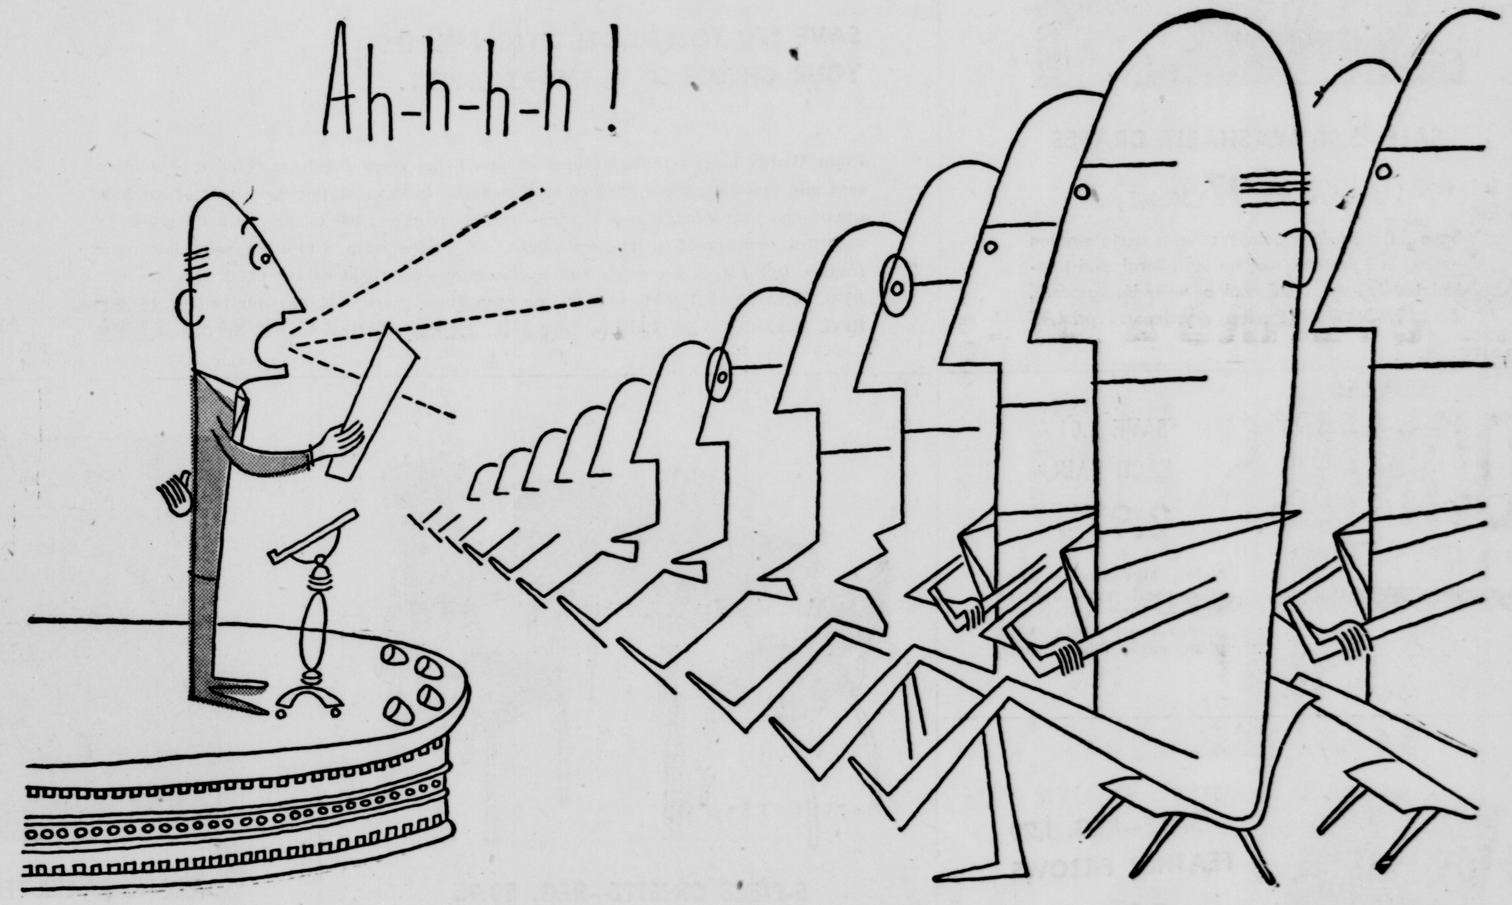

New Jersey dairymen have kept free of federal controls since the regulation law was enacted a generation ago. But now they have asked for them on the ground that cheap milk flowing from other states has reduced their income.

They appear to be prepared to fight to the U. S. Supreme Court any proposal that part of Jersey be attached to the New York marketing area.

Of the New York cooperatives, the Dairymen's League, Metropolitan Milk Producers and the Mutual Federation of Independent Cooperatives have requested a hearing on a "comprehensive" marketing order for north Jersey. They would add to the area Rockland county, and these New Jersey counties: Passaic, Bergen, Morris, Essex, Somerset, Union, Middlesex, Monmouth and Hudson. Eastern would add to this Sussex, Warren and Hunterdon counties of New Jersey and most of Dutchess, Putnam, Orange, Sullivan and Ulster counties in New York.

Look what Mr. Peterson told those financiers!

Mr. Alfred G. Peterson, a forthright man, addressed the convention of the Savings Associations League of N. Y. State and boldly discussed the matter of advertising—of his own free will.

Mr. Peterson, who is president of the National Savings and Loan League, and president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Greenwich, Connecticut, spoke as follows: —

"I feel that advertising is a very profitable investment. But we should not buy advertising blindly. We should give careful consideration both to the appeals and the media we use."

And listen to this!

"The medium which tops the list is the medium that reaches the greatest number of people at the lowest cost. It is my opinion the newspaper is that medium . . ."

But that isn't all . . .

"I place the newspaper at the top of the list because it reaches the local market. All of us are really conducting local businesses.

"We may be bound together into a national industry, but our spheres of influence are entirely local.

"The newspaper reaches precisely the people we want to reach."

Ah, Mr. Peterson — you are a man who knows his investment!

Last year the institution headed by Mr. Peterson invested 5% of its gross income on advertising, and more than 60% of that went into newspapers.

In only ten years this Association multiplied its total resources eight-fold!

Gosh! If savings and loan people themselves advertise, think how they must feel about lending money to people who work for sound companies who advertise soundly — in newspapers.

All business is local...and so are all newspapers!

Move to Get Bail Made for Kluckhon

Raleigh, N. C., May 18 (AP)—The attorney for Richard Kluckhohn has taken steps to have him released on bond while awaiting trial on a charge of murder.

Howard Manning filed a petition with the Superior Court yesterday asking for a habeas corpus writ. He contends the state showed insufficient evidence at a preliminary hearing Monday to warrant holding the youth without bond.

Kluckhohn, 21, of Evanston, Ill., described as a gun fancier and brilliant anthropology student, is accused in the fatal shooting last Friday of Miss Bernie Seawell, 43, government employe of Arlington, Va.

Police said a shot fired from a hotel room occupied by Kluckhorn hit Miss Seawell as she and a sister were standing at a parking lot. Kluckhorn claims his German luger pistol discharged accidentally.

250,000 volunteers a year to be given six months' special training to be followed by 7½ years' active reserve duty. The volunteers, between 17-19 years old, would save 18 months from the 2 years of active duty required of draftees. But they would put in this time in reserve duty.

REP. BARDEN (D.-N.C.) said he intends to offer a counter proposal that would permit students to fulfill their entire military obligation by taking three months' training each summer for four years.

Brooks said he opposes this plan on grounds it would take 300,000 to 400,000 troops to act as trainers, thus creating "an unacceptable calculated risk."

Rep. Short (R.-Mo.) said he is considering an amendment to reduce the reserve obligation of trainees to four years. Pentagon spokesmen have opposed this idea, and Short was defeated when he offered the same amendment in the Armed Services Committee.

Short, senior Republican on the committee, told a reporter he may also offer a proposal to send the bill back to committee for further study — a move which, if successful, could sidetrack the measure for this session of Congress.

Ike Would . . .

emphasized these points last night. Eisenhower's reference to them today indicated that the United States may go into the meeting with the idea of trying to roll back the Iron Curtain.

The Zhukov question arose when Eisenhower was asked whether he would like to have Zhukov at the conference. Marshal Nikolai Bulganin as premier would be Russia's top representative at the conference. Zhukov would not necessarily go any more than Secretary of Defense Wilson would go for the United States.

Financial and Commercial

New York, May 18 (AP)—The stock market advanced smartly today with aircrafts showing some vigor.

In the early afternoon, prices were up 1 to 3 points in many departments. Losses were small.

Despite the rise in prices, business was maintained at a modest pace of around two million shares for the day. That compares with 1,900,000 shares traded in yesterday's slightly lower market.

The market was down sharply Monday and was off slightly yesterday when a mid-session recovery movement faded away. Today at the start, prices were higher, especially in aircrafts. All major divisions, however, did well including steels, motors, rubbers, chemicals, railroads, and oils.

George Would Wait For Big 4 Meeting

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Sen. George (D.-Ga.) said today any discussion with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai about relaxing tensions in the Far East should await a forthcoming top-level Big Four meeting.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he still favors a meeting with Chou despite conditions laid down by the Red Chinese leader early yesterday in renewing his offer to negotiate directly with the United States on Formosa.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R.-N. J.), a foreign relations committman, predicted "there will not be any talks with Chou under the conditions he has laid down."

Sen. Mansfield (D.-Mont.), another committeeman, said in a separate interview he hopes this country will insist on the release of imprisoned American fliers and detained U. S. civilians before it agrees to any meeting.

New York, May 18 (AP)—A federal mediator reported today that "substantial progress" had been made toward settlement of the month-old strike at the Sperry Gyroscope Co. plant at Lake Success, L. I. 200 Scan Liberty Area for Prisoner

Liberty, May 18 (AP)—A posse of 200 men continued combing the nearby woods today for a handcuffed prisoner who fled from a police car yesterday.

The prisoner, Melvin Faison, 28, Negro, of (103 Broadway) Monticello, plunged into dense woods at nearby Mountaindale when Sullivan county Deputy Sheriff Laverne Boyer, who was guarding him in a car, turned away to light a cigarette.

BOYER FIRED several shots but Faison ducked around a building and darted into the woods, despite his handcuffs.

An all-night search through the woods, dotted with summer bungalows in this resort area, failed to provide any clues.

Police set up roadblocks on Route 17 near Monticello and on Route 52 near Woodburn.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Calypso Concert Proves Stimulating Program

Woodstock, May 18—A Calypso band and singers from Jamaica presented a stimulating program of native music, including original versions of American tunes, at the Woodstock School Sunday night for the Recreation and Rotary Club funds. Introduced by John Pike, Stuart Sharp, manager of the Silver Seas Hotel at Oche Rios on the north coast of Jamaica, said that this was the first trip to the United States for the members of the orchestra, that they had never seen a skyscraper, a locomotive or TV. Mr. Sharp, himself, makes yearly visits to the states.

The program opened with a Calypso song, Take to Jamaica, and was followed by an explanation by Mr. Sharp of the Rhumba Box, which dates back to Africa and was demonstrated by a member of the band. The orchestra was composed of two sets of naraeas, one set of which was used by Mr. Sharp, the Rhumba Box and two guitars.

Mr. Sharp introduced the members of the orchestra as follows: Eddie Brown, Livi Burk, Hubert Porter and Monti Reynolds. Mr. Sharp also stated that this time in Jamaica was very important in that they were celebrating their three hundredth year under British rule. The British took over from the Spaniards in 1655.

He went on to explain that the original music was "Mente" music, which is not Calypso, the modern version being the popular Calypso. In the old days, the English used to sing their news, and the present day music is a form of news singing. The English began this custom in the time of Richard the Lion Hearted. Calypso music was not introduced into Jamaica until the importation of slaves and slaves were imported into Jamaica by the Spanish. Calypso music is distinguished by its easy-going somewhat slow rhythm.

The next number played was a delightful number, "Living The Life of a Single Man." Following this number an account was given by Sharp of the recent trip made to the Bahamas by Princess Margaret of England. The band sang their own song composed for the Princess, entitled "Caribbean Courtesy" after which Mr. Sharp explained that in Jamaica too, "we make up songs from our souls and our hearts."

A Woodster, who like John Pike was a former guest at the Silver Seas Hotel, James B. (Bim) Pond, who was in the audience was also asked to speak. He said that Pike left his mark in "The great Pike tradition in Jamaica, in that Pike was not only advertising manager and store manager but he designed theatres and night clubs and did murals in many prominent buildings."

Sharp gave an amusing account of an experience of orchestra member Eddie Brown, who spent a month in a hospital following an unfortunate beating resulting from mistaken identity. While in the hospital Eddie composed a song titled, "Now Some People Can Resemble the Wrong Man," which was sung by Eddie, who is the composer of the group. Hubert Porter is the singer for the group, and Monti Reynolds is the leader.

A strictly Calypso song, "Rum and Coconut Water" was presented and was followed by a group of American songs sung in their own version, among them "My Gal Sal" and "My Blue Heaven."

Livi Burk, who plays the Rhumba Box, did a tap dance in bare feet, the sound being created by bottle tops placed between the toes. Other numbers played were "Bongo Chum" and "Sheboom." Another Calypso piece followed, "Come to the Lindin Market" composed around a local market place, and the last song presented was the band's farewell theme song for the hotel, "Beyond the Reef." It is an invitation for visitors to return.

Robert Angeloch Wins Kleinert Art Award

Woodstock, May 18—One of Woodstock's most promising young artists, Robert Angeloch, was presented with the Herminie E. Kleinert Award, which is given annually on the late Miss Kleinert's birthday, May 17. The artist who during her lifetime was an inspiration to many young artists, and a resident of Woodstock for about 30 years, died in 1943. Since her death 11 awards have been given to outstanding artists. The awards have been given by Miss Kleinert's sister, the late Mrs. Harry A. Gunzburg of New York and Mamroneck, and her niece, Mrs. James Marshall. Following the death of Mrs. Gunzburg last January, Mrs. Marshall announced that she would continue to give the awards.

The awards are made through a committee of Miss Kleinert's friends. Serving on the committee are: Mr. and Mrs. Konrad Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Georgiana Klitzgaard, Henry Mattson, Mrs. Madeline Wiltz, Karl Walters, Dorothy Varian, Caroline Rehland, Hermon More and Albert Heckmann.

Robert Angeloch, this year's winner, has been a pupil of Arnold Blanch, Yasuo Kuniyoshi and John Pike. Angeloch studied at the Art Student League from 1948 to 1950. He had a one-man show in 1953 at the Rudolph Gallery in Woodstock, and has been represented in group shows at the Zena Gallery in 1954, and he has shown pictures in exhibitions at the Metropolitan Museum in New York and the Albany Institute of Art, and at the Art Students League. He has also shown at the Woodstock Art Gallery and the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen. He plans to hold a one-man show at the Zena Gallery in August of this year.

During the past winter Angeloch planned and arranged to the art exhibitions at the Rainbow Lodge at Mt. Tremper.

For one year Angeloch travelled in Europe on the MacDowell Travelling Scholarship, during which he spent most of that time in Florence, Italy, and also toured through Austria and France. While in Austria he decided to concentrate on landscape painting.

The committee making the award met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Dorothy Varian in Bearsville.

Previous Kleinert Awards have been made to: Ainsley (Pat.) Burke, 1954; Edward Chavez, 1953; Roland Crampton, 1952; Rosella Hartmann, 1951; A. Sigalof, 1949; Raoul Haig, Wendell Jones, and Austin Mecklem. The first award in 1945 was made to Mark Vukovic of Zena, and the second to Lucile Blanch in 1946.

THE JUDGE noted to the jury that the law does not provide that the person making an emergency call must identify himself. The law provides that a person using a false cry of emergency to get the line also can be prosecuted, Schwartz said.

A witness, Deputy Sheriff Charles Borchers, testified he questioned Mrs. Kayes after the party line incident and she told him she had quite a temper which often got her in trouble.

Townsend's wife, Sue, testified that last July Mrs. Kayes was involved in a similar incident when Mrs. Townsend was calling seven vonluteer firemen to duty.

Mrs. Townsend said she had made two calls when Mrs. Kayes attempted to take the line. The witness said that when she explained she had five more calls to make and asked Mrs. Kayes to get off the line, she said Mrs. Kayes replied "like hell I will; you had your turn."

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Calypso Concert Proves Stimulating Program

Woodstock, May 18—A Calypso band and singers from Jamaica presented a stimulating program of native music, including original versions of American tunes, at the Woodstock School Sunday night for the Recreation and Rotary Club funds. Introduced by John Pike, Stuart Sharp, manager of the Silver Seas Hotel at Oche Rios on the north coast of Jamaica, said that this was the first trip to the United States for the members of the orchestra, that they had never seen a skyscraper, a locomotive or TV. Mr. Sharp, himself, makes yearly visits to the states.

The program opened with a Calypso song, Take to Jamaica, and was followed by an explanation by Mr. Sharp of the Rhumba Box, which dates back to Africa and was demonstrated by a member of the band. The orchestra was composed of two sets of naraeas, one set of which was used by Mr. Sharp, the Rhumba Box and two guitars.

Mr. Sharp introduced the members of the orchestra as follows: Eddie Brown, Livi Burk, Hubert Porter and Monti Reynolds. Mr. Sharp also stated that this time in Jamaica was very important in that they were celebrating their three hundredth year under British rule. The British took over from the Spaniards in 1655.

He went on to explain that the original music was "Mente" music, which is not Calypso, the modern version being the popular Calypso. In the old days, the English used to sing their news, and the present day music is a form of news singing. The English began this custom in the time of Richard the Lion Hearted. Calypso music was not introduced into Jamaica until the importation of slaves and slaves were imported into Jamaica by the Spanish. Calypso music is distinguished by its easy-going somewhat slow rhythm.

The next number played was a delightful number, "Living The Life of a Single Man." Following this number an account was given by Sharp of the recent trip made to the Bahamas by Princess Margaret of England. The band sang their own song composed for the Princess, entitled "Caribbean Courtesy" after which Mr. Sharp explained that in Jamaica too, "we make up songs from our souls and our hearts."

A Woodster, who like John Pike was a former guest at the Silver Seas Hotel, James B. (Bim) Pond, who was in the audience was also asked to speak. He said that Pike left his mark in "The great Pike tradition in Jamaica, in that Pike was not only advertising manager and store manager but he designed theatres and night clubs and did murals in many prominent buildings."

Sharp gave an amusing account of an experience of orchestra member Eddie Brown, who spent a month in a hospital following an unfortunate beating resulting from mistaken identity. While in the hospital Eddie composed a song titled, "Now Some People Can Resemble the Wrong Man," which was sung by Eddie, who is the composer of the group. Hubert Porter is the singer for the group, and Monti Reynolds is the leader.

A strictly Calypso song, "Rum and Coconut Water" was presented and was followed by a group of American songs sung in their own version, among them "My Gal Sal" and "My Blue Heaven."

Livi Burk, who plays the Rhumba Box, did a tap dance in bare feet, the sound being created by bottle tops placed between the toes. Other numbers played were "Bongo Chum" and "Sheboom." Another Calypso piece followed, "Come to the Lindin Market" composed around a local market place, and the last song presented was the band's farewell theme song for the hotel, "Beyond the Reef." It is an invitation for visitors to return.

A concert by Reginald Werrenrath in a small city in Wisconsin was sponsored, with pardonable pride, by the exclusive Beethoven Club. This musical clique derived no end of satisfaction from its reputation for doing things up brown. The neatly printed programs of its latest achievement modestly gave credit where credit was due, with the name of all officers and directors of the club—and that of the dealer who loaned the piano—only slightly subordinate to the list of musical numbers. One little item, however, was left out.

When the initial applause had subsided, Mr. Werrenrath announced, with an unaccustomed edge to his priceless voice:

"Anyone interested in learning the name of the evening's artist will find it in tomorrow's papers."

During the heroic defense of the Battle of Cassino one of the commanding officers lined up his men and asked for a volunteer for a mission of the gravest danger. Those willing to serve were told to step forward two paces from the line.

For a moment he was busy making notations. When he looked up he was shocked to see the ranks unbroken.

Commanding Officer — What, (unbelievingly) not a single man will volunteer?

Aide—You misunderstand, sir, the whole line has stepped forward two paces.

Is Appointed Aide To Bard President

The appointment of James A. Grinder as assistant to the president of Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, was announced today by James H. Case, Jr., president of the college.

Mr. Grinder will be primarily concerned with public relations and fund raising activities for Bard. "This appointment," President Case declared, "ends a search that began late last autumn and fills an important new post. Bard must be better understood, and only a wider dissemination of honest information regarding the College can bring this about."

J. A. GRINDER

FORMERLY an account executive with the public relations firm of Robert S. Taplinger and Associates in New York city, he has also been consultant to a number of business and civic organizations.

Mr. Grinder served in the air force and is an alumnus of St. John's College in Annapolis, Md.

Veterans Given Reminder on GI Course Date

A roundup of rules dealing with the three-year starting deadline for Korea GI Bill was issued today by the Veterans Administration, F. William Sheehan, officer in charge, Veterans Administration, 286 Fair street, said today. Under the law, veterans actually must start their GI courses within three years from the date of their separation from the armed forces, in order to continue afterwards. Sheehan said it was not sufficient for a veteran to file an application before the deadline with the intention of starting afterwards. He must enroll in and begin his course in advance of his deadline.

Furthermore, having started in time, he must be in training on his deadline date, unless his attendance has been interrupted by the summer vacation or for some other excusable reason.

Such an excusable interruption would be the up-to-12-month suspension of training allowed by the law. In some cases the suspension may last even longer, if the veteran can show VA it was impossible to have resumed training within the 12-month limit.

SPECIAL RULES go into effect for veterans in Korean GI training courses after their starting deadlines, Sheehan said.

Before the starting deadline, there is no requirement for continuous training. But after that date, training must be continuous, except for the up-to-12-month suspensions that are permitted.

Also before the deadline, the veteran-trainee has the right to make one change of course. He could switch, for example, from accounting to medicine, or from carpentry to shoemaking. After the starting deadline, however, he no longer may make a free change of course.

If he has not changed courses before the deadline, he may be allowed to change afterwards only if:

The new course that he wants is a normal progression from the course he already is taking, or

He is not making satisfactory progress in his current course, due to no fault of his own, and vocational counseling discloses that he would make a better go of it in a different course.

Charge Judge Erred

New York, May 18 (AP)—Lawyers for Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke have charged that Judge Francis L. Valente erred at Jelke's second compulsory prostitution trial by refusing to accept as evidence what they called "proof of the hostility of the principal witness, Pat Ward." The lawyers moved in State Supreme Court yesterday to delay Jelke's transfer from city prison to Sing Sing prison by applying for a certificate of reasonable doubt for the 25-year-old oleo heir. Jelke was convicted of compulsory prostitution at his second trial and was sentenced to from two to three years in prison last April 28.

Veterans Given Reminder on GI Course Date

A roundup of rules dealing with the three-year starting deadline for Korea GI Bill was issued today by the Veterans Administration, F. William Sheehan, officer in charge, Veterans Administration, 286 Fair street, said today. Under the law, veterans actually must start their GI courses within three years from the date of their separation from the armed forces, in order to continue afterwards. Sheehan said it was not sufficient for a veteran to file an application before the deadline with the intention of starting afterwards. He must enroll in and begin his course in advance of his deadline.

Furthermore, having started in time, he must be in training on his deadline date, unless his attendance has been interrupted by the summer vacation or for some other excusable reason.

Such an excusable interruption would be the up-to-12-month suspension of training allowed by the law. In some cases the suspension may last even longer, if the veteran can show VA it was impossible to have resumed training within the 12-month limit.

SPECIAL RULES go into effect for veterans in Korean GI training courses after their starting deadlines, Sheehan said.

Before the starting deadline, there is no requirement for continuous training. But after that date, training must be continuous, except for the up-to-12-month suspensions that are permitted.

Also before the deadline, the veteran-trainee has the right to make one change of course. He could switch, for example, from accounting to medicine, or from carpentry to shoemaking. After the starting deadline, however, he no longer may make a free change of course.

If he has not changed courses before the deadline, he may be allowed to change afterwards only if:

The new course that he wants is a normal progression from the course he already is taking, or

He is not making satisfactory progress in his current course, due to no fault of his own, and vocational counseling discloses that he would make a better go of it in a different course.

German Inventor Has Area Lab

Dancing Waters Are Planned in Port Ewen

By JACK CRAWFORD

You've heard of trained seals, trained lions, trained elephants —but have you heard of trained waters?

They exist—under the name of Dancing Waters.

This remarkable attraction, the invention of a German, Otto Przystawik, has now established its laboratory headquarters on the S. Liese property in Port Ewen almost at the foot of the WKNY television transmitter.

Liese's brother-in-law, Sam Shayon, and his partner, Harold Steinman, head a corporation with world rights to the fabulous waters which perform to the skilled manipulation of a master keyboard, accompanied by music and brilliant color.

THE LABORATORY for testing and maintenance work on the complicated and costly units is located in a large frame building near the Liese home. The local plant is also used as a school for training operators and maintenance men.

Approximately a score of Dancing Waters units, a fabulous mechanism of pumps, pipes, wires, etc., with approximately 4,000 jets, all controlled at a master panel by means of some 200 pushbuttons, levers, etc., are now traveling throughout the world. Eleven are on tour in this country, seven in Europe, several in South America and one in the Philippine Islands.

THE WATERS can be tossed, whirled, spread in sheets, made to sway, etc., in a rhythmic pattern of changing tempo and movement. The effect is striking, when accompanied by music and the sliding and changing of color over the water-figures.

Ordinary electric current of 220 volts is passed to a transformer which steps the voltage up to 380. The switchboard activates 20 German motors of two to five horsepower which pump the water, varying the pressure as required by means of rheostatic control.

The scale of the performance can be varied to meet the requirements of the situation and facilities. It is possible to throw the waters as high as 30 feet.

THE SYSTEM of pipes is set in a rubber tank about a half-foot deep, 60 feet long and 20 wide. Water tossed from the jets collects in the tank and is used again.

Three persons travel with each unit—a panel man, an electrician and maintenance man. All sound accompaniment is on a tape recorder magnified by loud speakers. Announcer for the show is Ben Grauer, well-known news commentator.

Some of the water effects are described in picturesque language as single-strand, seven-strand, spinner, organ, small, middle and big rings, candles, vase, rainbow, waltzes and traveling curtains.

IT IS ESTIMATED that a single unit costs approximately $25,000. Development of the first unit required about a quarter of a million dollars.

As the performance begins the resonant voice of Ben Grauer is heard announcing the "fabulous and amazing Dancing Waters" which he describes as "new, different and something you have never seen before."

Then follows a series of "dances" performed to the following numbers. Walk of the Etch, a medley of American tunes, I Hear Music, Syncopated Clock, Blue Tango, Mumbo Jumbo, Beautiful Dreamer and Stars and Stripes Forever.

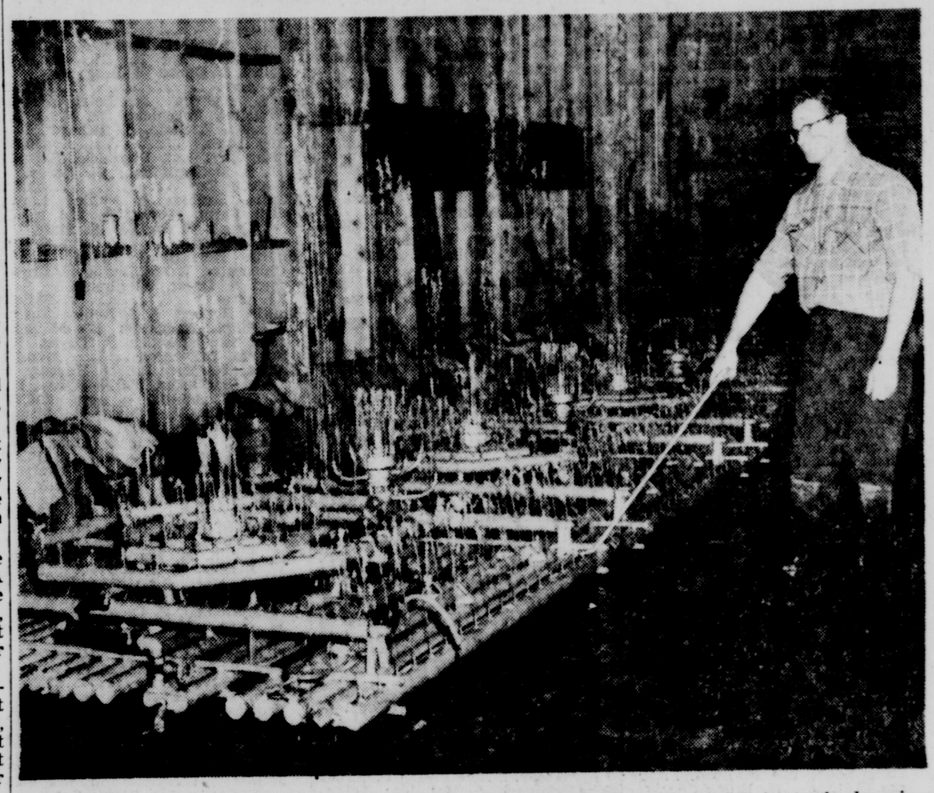

THE SHOW can be arranged to run for 20 minutes or an hour, as desired.

A unit being tested last week at the plant was delivered by Needes Express to Atlantic City where it will play a 20-minute show each hour on the Million Dollar Pier.

Some of the units play state fairs, theatres, hotels, etc. A special room was built at the Royal Nevada Hotel, Las Vegas, Nev., recently with a contract to show Dancing Waters for three years.

The first American appearance of Dancing Waters was at Radio City in January, 1953, when it ran for four weeks. It was re-booked in April of that year by Radio City for another four weeks.

Albany, May 18 (AP)—Gov. Harriman's department heads were under orders today to review their operations with an eye toward giving the taxpayers "more for their money," according to the governor's press secretary.

The aide said there also was talk of looking into the expenditures and specialized activities of the numerous state commissions, several of which are temporary.

HARRIMAN HELD a "cabinet" meeting yesterday with the heads of 16 departments and agencies.

Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits, a Republican who heads the Law Department, did not attend.

Charles Van Devander, the governor's press secretary, said Harriman told his lieutenants to "take the initiative in reviewing every aspect of their operations."

The governor disclosed Monday that he had instructed Paul Appleby, his budget director, to look into all departments of the administration with the aim of improving services.

VAN DEVANDER said the "cabinet" was told that Appleby would work with members and provide advice wherever possible. He said the aim was "to give the taxpayers more for their money."

There was "some discussion" of improving operations of the various state commissions, Van Devander added. They have a "semi-independent status," he noted.

The press secretary said no specific commissions or areas of examination were disclosed.

Three GI Prisoners Recaptured in N. Y.

New York, May 18 (AP)—Three army privates escaped from guards last night while attending a religious service on Governors Island but were recaptured in Manhattan early today after six hours freedom.

The three, wearing army work clothes, were picked up by two city policemen. They were turned over to military police.

An army spokesman said the three claimed they swam to freedom, but a police harbor squad official expressed doubt and said the tide was too strong.

The GIs were caught after widespread searches on Governors Island and along the Manhattan waterfront.

The prisoners, who had been taken from the guard house in ancient Castle Williams to the island's Protestant chapel, were found missing at the end of the service.

The prisoners, none of them charged with a serious offense, were identified by the army as: Kenneth Herr, 22, of 3823 S. Albany St., Chicago; Emery G. Elias, 19, of 1009 Columbia St., Utica, N. Y., and Glen E. Coffen Jr., 18, of 3648 Grand Ave., Phoenix, Ariz.

Salk Inoculations Underway in Paltz

New Paltz, May 18—Inoculations of Salk vaccine to students of the Campus School got underway this morning, according to Principal Dr. George Thomas.

Dr. Thomas said it is hoped that the program can be completed by June 10, the closing date of the Campus School before summer vacation. "If the program is not completed by this date," Dr. Thomas said "we'll recall the students."

Students taking part in the Salk vaccine program today are from the Campus School, Central School District 1, Ardonia School, Modena School, Benton Corners and St. Joseph's School.

The program for the anti-polio injections was originally scheduled to start April 26.

Why We Say--

"Don't tell a woman a secret," the saying goes, but many a business man who dictates to his secretary does just that. The word "secretary" is derived from SECRET. Secretaries formerly recorded only the private notes of their employers.

Initial Probe Places No Blame On Bruised Girl

Albany, May 18 (AP) — The acting state mental hygiene commissioner says preliminary inquiry has "disclosed no evidence of neglect or abuse" of a five-year-old Buffalo girl whose parents have removed from Willowbrook State School.

Dr. Arthur W. Pense said yesterday he had received reports from New York city and Buffalo in the case of little Catherine Devole. Gov. Harriman ordered the investigation.

Arthur Devole of Buffalo complained Monday that his daughter had suffered bruises and welts at the school for mentally retarded children on Staten Island.

PENSE QUOTED Dr. Leonard C. Lang of the department's staff in Buffalo as saying there was "no indication of the child having been struck."

The Buffalo Courier-Express yesterday quoted the Devoles' family physician as saying bruises and welts on the child "definitely" were injuries rather than indications of some internal illness. The physician was not named.

Dr. Pense issued his statement through Charles Van Devander, the governor's press secretary. He said Lang had examined the child with the parents' permission.

DR. LANG FOUND an inch-long sore on the left hip and minor discolorations on the left and right hips, Pense said. A red mark 1½ inches long on her left buttocks looked like a scratch that was healing, Lang reported to Pense.

Pense said he had checked also with Dr. James A. Brussel, an assistant commissioner in New York city. The acting commissioner said he would inquire further and make a complete report to the governor "shortly."

DEVOLE SAID the child, who cannot talk, was stricken with a brain disease when she was two. The family removed her from the school Sunday.

The father said he was "shocked" by her condition when he visited her May 1. He contended that Catherine had extensive bruises on her lower back and buttocks. He said the child weighed only 30 pounds, 16 less than when she entered the school last December.

Dr. Harold H. Berman, superintendent of the school, said that a physical examination of the child when she left showed an inch-long sore on the left hip but no bruises or welts. Berman said dietary deficiency caused by feeding difficulties had caused her to lose some hair and to have dry, scaly skin.

George Washington was the most widely traveled American official of his age.

Poking Fun at Follies Is Grand Humor for Child

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

One Friday, Mike's grandparents came to supper. Later, in the living room, Mike was happily absorbed in his favorite TV cowboy program, when Grandpa joined him.

Without speaking, he waved Mike out of his chair to sit down in it himself. Mike had found another chair when Grandma made her entrance. "Up, sir," ordered Grandpa again—and in growing exasperation Mike surrendered his second chair.

As he sprawled on the floor, Grandma said fretfully, "Oh dear, can't you turn to something besides all this noisy shooting, Arthur?"

Mike's father dismissed the cowboys.

So Mike drew his cowboy gun. In a state of high excitement, he rushed about, poking it so insistently into everyone's face that his father angrily sent him to bed.

The next morning, with intense resentment, Mike began to criticize his grandparents.

Suddenly, his mother interrupted. "Let me show you how we all looked to me yesterday!" she said. And pulling her face into grim disapproval, she imitated Grandpa's pompous gesture, crying, "Up, sir," in a deep voice.

Then, making a growling noise, she laughed, "That was you, Mike, getting mad—and here's me!" Wringing her hands in burlesque of herself, she whined, "Oh, how unfair everyone is to my child! What shall I do? Though I understand how he wants to shoot us all up, it's not polite to say so. Oh dear what shall I do?"

A small grin had appeared on Mike's face. The next moment, at his mother's imitation of his father's confusion between duty to his parents and duty to his child, Mike bursts into liberating laughter.

His mother's humor had made human weakness look so absurd that he could no longer respect it enough to resent it.

Have I given the impression that I'm endorsing disrespect for grandparents? I don't want to. So let me point out that Mike's mother made light, not only of her elderly in-law's self-centeredness, but of his reactions to it, his father's irritated confusion and her own helplessness.

She was poking fun, the wise kind woman, not at people but at the follies they allow to keep them apart.

There's a kind that bad for them—the kind that makes them feel little and helpless not big and strong. We all know it. It's the fun-poking that seeks to humiliate us.

That's not the humor that's grand for children; the brand Mike's mother displayed is.

Jurors Will Hold Banquet Tonight

The annual spring banquet of the Ulster County Grand Juror's Association will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the Flamingo, Route 9W.

Vincent G. Connelly, confidential law clerk to Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth, is the scheduled guest speaker.

According to President Thomas J. Murphy, one of the largest gatherings is expected to attend tonight's program.

Boy Too Bright For Intelligence Tests in Schools

Cleveland, May 18 (AP)—The parents of 12-year-old John Francis Schivell have a problem. Psychologists told them their son's level of intelligence is so high it can't be measured by standardized tests and most public schools are inadequate for his intellectual gifts.

A strapping 150-pounder who stands five feet six, John is wrapped up in physics and mathematics, and says he wants to become a "research scientist."

He is a freckle-faced bespectacled eighth grader at suburban Maple Heights High School where he gets straight A's.

TWO YEARS ago, during routine testing by Kent State University phychologists, testers said John "broke through the top of the Stanford-Binet intelligence test."

In tests by the department of psychology of Western Reserve University, John attained a perfect score in such areas as language development memory, ability to compare and contrast ideas and concepts and recognition of words, according to Dr. Corinne F. Baker, assistant clinical professor there.

THE BOY spends his spare time reading technical publications, studying foreign languages, and is currently absorbed in a biography of the late Albert Einstein.

Dr. Baker said:

"It is easily seen that John is out of place among boys of his own age. He has adult reading habits and is bored with school, because there is insufficient challenge."

John's father, a layout inspector in a factory, applied for a scholarship for the boy at a private academy, but says he cannot afford the $800 yearly cost for the boy's room, board and books.

New Sub Planned

Washington, May 18 (AP)—The navy plans to build an additional atomic submarine, bringing the projected total of such craft to eight. This was reported yesterday by Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.), who said the navy had advised a Senate-House atomic energy subcommittee of its intentions. The navy had asked congressional authority to build three more nuclear-powered subs. The change of plans would add one to this figure. Four atomic submarines were authorized earlier and one of these has been completed.

Paid His Way

Wichita, Kan., May 18 (AP)—Finnis C. Morris, Capron, Okla., drove 130 miles to Wichita for jury duty—as ordered. He was declared ineligible for Kansas jury duty, however, when Judge William C. Kandt learned Morris had moved to Oklahoma two years ago and that the court summons was forwarded from his old Wichita address. Morris was paid 7 cents a mile for his trouble.

Schine Now Corporal

Anchorage, Alaska, May 18 (AP)—It's Cpl. G. David Schine now. The former aide to Sen. Joseph McCarthy and heir to a hotel chain was promoted from private first class Monday along with 24 other members of the 71st Military Police Co. at Ft. Richardson. The extra stripe increases his base pay from $99.77 a month to $122.30.

Hottest news in Hardtops is the 4-Door Riviera

Why take anything less than the sensation of the year?

WHEN you learn what's been done in the automobile pictured here, you can easily see why this beauty is winning rave notices coast to coast.

Buick engineers took the hardtop body design that has been growing tremendously in popularity over the past six years—and gave it four doors instead of two.

Simple? Sure—to all outward appearances.

But it took a brand-new kind of body with wholly new structural principles to do it—to bring this long-awaited new kind of automobile to the public in volume numbers and at popular prices.

For this is a true hardtop—with the sleek and racy look of a Convertible, because there are no center posts in the window areas on either side.

And now it has front doors for the front-seat passengers—and rear doors for the rear-seat passengers—plus room increased to the size of a full Sedan.

(It took some special kind of engineering magic, you can be sure, to hinge all four doors at their forward edges for greater safety, and more ease of entering and exiting.)

So it looks like Buick has scooped the industry again—and come up with the hottest news in hardtops since Buick originated the first two-door hardtop six years ago.

HOTTEST NEWS IN AUTOMATIC DRIVES IS VARIABLE PITCH DYNAFLOW

It's the world's first transmission with the switch-pitch principle of the modern airplane's variable pitch propeller. You get better gas mileage in cruising. You switch the pitch just by pressing the gas pedal—and get lightning-like response for getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of accelerating power. It's the performance thrill of the year. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Series at no more extra cost than earlier versions of this wonder drive.

And you can have it now—in the low-price SPECIAL or the supremely-powered CENTURY—and either one at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door.

Drop in on us today—this week, for sure—and see how easily and how quickly one can be yours.

Poking Fun at Follies Is Grand Humor for Child

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

One Friday, Mike's grandparents came to supper. Later, in the living room, Mike was happily absorbed in his favorite TV cowboy program, when Grandpa joined him.

Without speaking, he waved Mike out of his chair to sit down in it himself. Mike had found another chair when Grandma made her entrance. "Up, sir," ordered Grandpa again—and in growing exasperation Mike surrendered his second chair.

As he sprawled on the floor, Grandma said fretfully, "Oh dear, can't you turn to something besides all this noisy shooting, Arthur?"

Mike's father dismissed the cowboys.

So Mike drew his cowboy gun. In a state of high excitement, he rushed about, poking it so insistently into everyone's face that his father angrily sent him to bed.

The next morning, with intense resentment, Mike began to criticize his grandparents.

Suddenly, his mother interrupted. "Let me show you how we all looked to me yesterday!" she said. And pulling her face into grim disapproval, she imitated Grandpa's pompous gesture, crying, "Up, sir," in a deep voice.

Then, making a growling noise, she laughed, "That was you, Mike, getting mad—and here's me!" Wringing her hands in burlesque of herself, she whined, "Oh, how unfair everyone is to my child! What shall I do? Though I understand how he wants to shoot us all up, it's not polite to say so. Oh dear what shall I do?"

A small grin had appeared on Mike's face. The next moment, at his mother's imitation of his father's confusion between duty to his parents and duty to his child, Mike bursts into liberating laughter.

His mother's humor had made human weakness look so absurd that he could no longer respect it enough to resent it.

Have I given the impression that I'm endorsing disrespect for grandparents? I don't want to. So let me point out that Mike's mother made light, not only of her elderly in-law's self-centeredness, but of his reactions to it, his father's irritated confusion and her own helplessness.

She was poking fun, the wise kind woman, not at people but at the follies they allow to keep them apart.

There's a kind that bad for them—the kind that makes them feel little and helpless not big and strong. We all know it. It's the fun-poking that seeks to humiliate us.

That's not the humor that's grand for children; the brand Mike's mother displayed is.

Emu on the Way

Decatur, Ill. (AP)—Ed Cummings, hatchery manager has a very important job—the hatching of an emu egg. Brought from a California zoo, the emu egg is from one of the largest birds in the world. Cummings believes the egg is in very delicate condition now and to move it for X-ray examination might be fatal. The issue will be in doubt for a while. Comparing incubation periods of the emu (56 days) with a chicken (21 days), Cummings figures his rare charge is about one-third on the way to hatching.

Church Headquarters to Be 17-Story Edifice in N.Y.

New York, May 18 (AP)—The National Council of Churches' design for its new headquarters here is a 14-million-dollar, 17-story edifice, sufficient to accommodate at least 3,000 staff workers and housing a number of facilities.

Construction plans were announced yesterday by Edmund F. Wagner, president of the church center's board of trustees.

The National Council's offices are now in rented space in eight buildings in the downtown Manhattan area.

THE NEW headquarters is planned for a block-long site on Riverside Drive, between 119th and 120th streets, overlooking the Hudson river and near Columbia University.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. has donated the site and has offered to pay for a modified Gothic limestone exterior for the United Church center.

In addition to being headquarters of the council, the building will house offices of a number of the 30 Protestant and Orthodox denominations — with 35,500,000 members — which the council represents.

Wagner, president of the General Realty & Utilities Corp. and treasurer of the United Lutheran Church in America, said one of the nation's largest insurance companies has indicated its readiness to work out details of a mortgage for half the cost of the church center.

"WE HOPE and believe," Wagner added, "at least 25 per cent of the total will come through gifts. Another 25 per cent will be provided by the 'investing beneficiary groups.'"

The National Council and the Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board of the American Baptist Convention already have voted authorization for investments of $600,000 each. Three-hundred - thousand - dollar authorizations have been voted by the United Lutheran Church and by the National and Foreign Boards of Missions of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A.

Additional financing totaling $900,000 already is indicated, Wagner said.

PLANS FOR the church center call for complete air-conditioning, asphalt tile floors, accoustically-treated ceilings, fluorescent lighting and nine self-service elevators. From subbasement through three tower floors the structure will have a gross floor area of about 544,000 square feet. The first floor will include a chapel seating 300 persons, an auditorium seating 500, and a cafeteria and dining rooms with a capacity of 500.

Say It With Blood

Ehrhardt, S. C. (AP)—This town of 500 turned out for a bloodmobile visit, donating 151 pints of blood. Twenty-five donors were turned away as visit time ran out.

FRIENDSHIP STAMP—New Australian stamp signifies friendship between its people and the United States. Printed in blue, it features the upper section of Australia's National Memorial to the U.S.A., which stands in Canberra. Inset is portrait of Queen Elizabeth II, who unveiled the memorial in February, 1954.

Secret Solicitation

Electra, Tex. (AP) — The Fire Department though it had a secret telephone number—one that only volunteer firemen could call to find out where's the fire. But pretty soon just about everybody in town knew it. And just about everybody would ring as soon as they heard the sirens to find out where's the fire. The other day, the siren wailed. Every time anybody called, he was advised to donate to the Red Cross.

Thunderjets Are In Australia on Non-Stop Flight

Newcastle, Australia, May 18 (AP)—Four U. S. Thunderjets landed here today to complete a record nonstop Tokyo-to-Australia flight in 12 hours 2 minutes.

The speedy single-engine fighters, each capable of carrying an atomic bomb, refueled in the air three times during their 4,840-mile hop — over Guam, Manus island and Townsville, Australia.

THE FLIGHT, part of a U. S. Air Force goodwill mission to Australia extended the nonstop overwater record for single-engine jets by 355 miles. Col. David Shilling set the previous mark of 4,485 miles in 1953 on a flight from Turner Air Force Base, Ga., to North Africa.

The F84s set down at the Royal Australian Air Force's huge Williamstown Air Force Base here at 5:32 p. m. Australian time (2:32 a. m. EST). Newcastle is 60 miles north of Sydney, on Australia's southeast coast.

The flight had left Yokota air base, near Tokyo, (at 2:30 p. m. EST Tuesday) in balmy spring weather, but landed here in the Southern Hemisphere's May autumn. A chill gusty wind lashed the oceanside airport and black clouds scudded across the darkening sky.

THERE WERE orginally six planes, including two alternates in case of trouble, when the flight left Yokota. One, piloted by 1st Lt. Wilford R. Ladd of Georgetown, Ky., put back after his craft developed fuel trouble about 100 miles out.

Ladd parachuted safely from his plane before it crashed near Nagoya, Japan.

A second Thunderjet piloted by 1st Lt. Ted K. Case of Safford, Ariz., flew on to Guam with the team. Case dropped off there when his plane developed radio difficulties.

Police Want Plates

Detroit (AP)—Police chiefs say their work would be easier if Michigan restored its second automobile license plate. The Southeastern Michigan Assn. of Chiefs of Police voted to ask the secretary of state for action to get the plate back. They said it is particularly useful in tracing stolen cars. Michigan eliminated the front car plate in World War 2 in order to save metal.

Emu on the Way

Decatur, Ill. (AP)—Ed Cummings, hatchery manager has a very important job—the hatching of an emu egg. Brought from a California zoo, the emu egg is from one of the largest birds in the world. Cummings believes the egg is in very delicate condition now and to move it for X-ray examination might be fatal. The issue will be in doubt for a while. Comparing incubation periods of the emu (56 days) with a chicken (21 days), Cummings figures his rare charge is about one-third on the way to hatching.

Church Headquarters to Be 17-Story Edifice in N.Y.

New York, May 18 (AP)—The National Council of Churches' design for its new headquarters here is a 14-million-dollar, 17-story edifice, sufficient to accommodate at least 3,000 staff workers and housing a number of facilities.

Construction plans were announced yesterday by Edmund F. Wagner, president of the church center's board of trustees.

The National Council's offices are now in rented space in eight buildings in the downtown Manhattan area.

THE NEW headquarters is planned for a block-long site on Riverside Drive, between 119th and 120th streets, overlooking the Hudson river and near Columbia University.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. has donated the site and has offered to pay for a modified Gothic limestone exterior for the United Church center.

In addition to being headquarters of the council, the building will house offices of a number of the 30 Protestant and Orthodox denominations — with 35,500,000 members — which the council represents.

Wagner, president of the General Realty & Utilities Corp. and treasurer of the United Lutheran Church in America, said one of the nation's largest insurance companies has indicated its readiness to work out details of a mortgage for half the cost of the church center.

"WE HOPE and believe," Wagner added, "at least 25 per cent of the total will come through gifts. Another 25 per cent will be provided by the 'investing beneficiary groups.'"

The National Council and the Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board of the American Baptist Convention already have voted authorization for investments of $600,000 each. Three-hundred - thousand - dollar authorizations have been voted by the United Lutheran Church and by the National and Foreign Boards of Missions of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A.

Additional financing totaling $900,000 already is indicated, Wagner said.

PLANS FOR the church center call for complete air-conditioning, asphalt tile floors, accoustically-treated ceilings, fluorescent lighting and nine self-service elevators. From subbasement through three tower floors the structure will have a gross floor area of about 544,000 square feet. The first floor will include a chapel seating 300 persons, an auditorium seating 500, and a cafeteria and dining rooms with a capacity of 500.

Say It With Blood

Secret Solicitation

Electra, Tex. (AP) — The Fire Department though it had a secret telephone number—one that only volunteer firemen could call to find out where's the fire. But pretty soon just about everybody in town knew it. And just about everybody would ring as soon as they heard the sirens to find out where's the fire. The other day, the siren wailed. Every time anybody called, he was advised to donate to the Red Cross.

Thunderjets Are In Australia on Non-Stop Flight

Newcastle, Australia, May 18 (AP)—Four U. S. Thunderjets landed here today to complete a record nonstop Tokyo-to-Australia flight in 12 hours 2 minutes.

The speedy single-engine fighters, each capable of carrying an atomic bomb, refueled in the air three times during their 4,840-mile hop — over Guam, Manus island and Townsville, Australia.

THE FLIGHT, part of a U. S. Air Force goodwill mission to Australia extended the nonstop overwater record for single-engine jets by 355 miles. Col. David Shilling set the previous mark of 4,485 miles in 1953 on a flight from Turner Air Force Base, Ga., to North Africa.

The F84s set down at the Royal Australian Air Force's huge Williamstown Air Force Base here at 5:32 p. m. Australian time (2:32 a. m. EST). Newcastle is 60 miles north of Sydney, on Australia's southeast coast.

The flight had left Yokota air base, near Tokyo, (at 2:30 p. m. EST Tuesday) in balmy spring weather, but landed here in the Southern Hemisphere's May autumn. A chill gusty wind lashed the oceanside airport and black clouds scudded across the darkening sky.

THERE WERE orginally six planes, including two alternates in case of trouble, when the flight left Yokota. One, piloted by 1st Lt. Wilford R. Ladd of Georgetown, Ky., put back after his craft developed fuel trouble about 100 miles out.

Ladd parachuted safely from his plane before it crashed near Nagoya, Japan.

A second Thunderjet piloted by 1st Lt. Ted K. Case of Safford, Ariz., flew on to Guam with the team. Case dropped off there when his plane developed radio difficulties.

Police Want Plates

Detroit (AP)—Police chiefs say their work would be easier if Michigan restored its second automobile license plate. The Southeastern Michigan Assn. of Chiefs of Police voted to ask the secretary of state for action to get the plate back. They said it is particularly useful in tracing stolen cars. Michigan eliminated the front car plate in World War 2 in order to save metal.

Two Children Smother

East St. Louis, Ill., May 18 (AP) —Two 3-year-old children smothered to death yesterday in an abandoned ice box in a neighbor's garage. The victims were Robert Lee Ballance, son of Mrs. Edna Mae Ballance and Nancy Anne Cygan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cygan. Mrs. Cygan and Elmer Ballance, Robert's grandfather, found the two in the ice box after an hour's search. They apparently opned the door, squeezed into the small food compartment and were trapped when the door slammed shut behind them.

Revival of Sharp Public Interest Is Desire of Stock Market Pros

New York, May 18 (AP)—The stock market sprang a slow leak three weeks ago.

Watching stock prices going soft, the public took to the sidelines. The professionals, however, had a wide variety of ready explanations and some are looking eagerly for signs of recovery and revival of public interest.

The stock market lost its zip at a time when most of the news continued to be bullish. Good earnings reports, increased dividends, new records in steel production, gains in industrial output generally, and a flood of optimistic predictions of even better times ahead—all of these seemed suddenly to lose their glamor.

BUT IT WAS the very same kind of news that earlier in the year was the unfailing excuse for bidding stock prices higher.

Why didn't the same good news work in the last three weeks?

Brokers point out that stock traders don't buy because of what business has done, but because of what they think it's likely to do. Six months ago the bulls decided that first quarter earnings were going to be good. The first of this year they guessed that second quarter earnings should be good also. They anticipated the stock splits, mergers and increased dividends, and the general prosperity.

SO STOCK PRICES were bid up high—so high in some cases that yields lost much of their attraction and bonds didn't look so dull.

Those who bought six months ago are now in position to sell and take their profits subject only to long-term capital gain tax rates.

Buying on margin has been made less attractive. In two stages the Federal Reserve Board has raised margins. At the start of the year you could buy a stock by putting up only half of the price in cash. Now you must put up 70 per cent of the price in cash. And Wall Street buzzes with rumors that the Federal Reserve may tighten up some of its other rules for stock trading.

BUT BROKERS say there are other reasons for the market slowdown besides those mentioned above (that prices may have risen too high too fast, and the official frowns on speculation on credit).

Peace talk rose to volume, brokers note, just about the time the market turned soft. Businessment would welcome peace. But it is recognized that one of the first results of any real lessening in world tension which the American people could believe trustworthy would be a demand that defense spending be cut further so that taxes could be lowered.

WHEN DEFENSE spending was cut two years ago, it contributed to the slowdown of business in 1953-54. The lost ground has been recovered now. But another cut in defense spending might have the same effect again—in the opinion of many stock traders.

So it is the uncertainty just now over what the Russians are really up to this time that has put many a timid stock trader on the sidelines.

There is the added uncertainty as to what may come out of the labor-management talks in top industries this summer. There are even some who wonder just what business in general will be like in the fall.

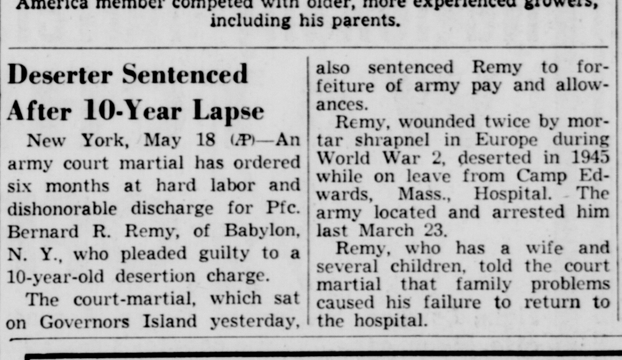

None of this uncertainty and wondering, however, means that Wall Street is looking for a major break in stock prices. Most observers call the past three weeks a period of adjustment after the long rise in prices. Some even see it as preparing the ground for a further advance.

The stock ticker writes its own story each day. You can look back and see where you've been. You can't say for sure what the market is going to do tomorrow.

Deserter Sentenced After 10-Year Lapse

New York, May 18 (AP)—An army court martial has ordered six months at hard labor and dishonorable discharge for Pfc. Bernard R. Remy, of Babylon, N. Y., who pleaded guilty to a 10-year-old desertion charge.

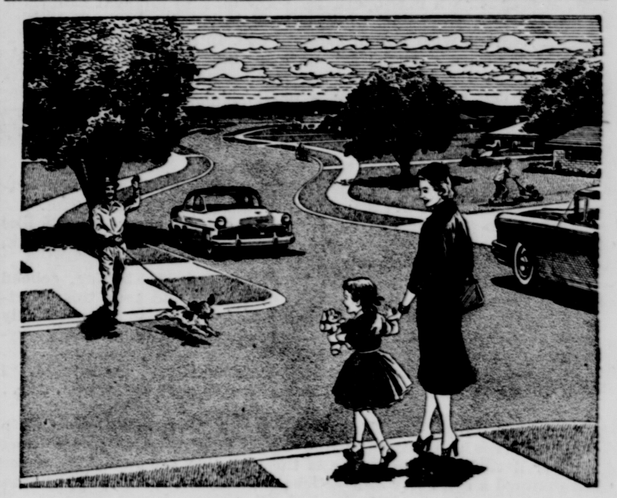

The court-martial, which sat on Governors Island yesterday, also sentenced Remy to forfeiture of army pay and allowances.

Remy, wounded twice by mortar shrapnel in Europe during World War 2, deserted in 1945 while on leave from Camp Edwards, Mass., Hospital. The army located and arrested him last March 23.

Remy, who has a wife and several children, told the court martial that family problems caused his failure to return to the hospital.

Clean Now, Maybe

Get a new street quickly and economically with durable, low-cost SOIL-CEMENT

A clean, attractive, smooth-riding street in front of your house increases the value of your property. A dusty, bumpy potholed street is unsightly and unsafe. It is a nuisance to drivers who must use it and to property owners who live on it.

If your street is worn-out and run down, it can be converted into an all-weather pavement quickly and economically. Just ask your city officials to pave it with soil-cement. Soil-cement is a combination of soil or granular material usually already on the street and portland cement and water. Mixed and compacted, these elements form a rigid, durable base. A bituminous surface completes the pavement.

Soil-cement paving is fast. Your entire street can be paved in a single day—with little inconvenience to you. It's economical too! Low in first cost, it gives years of dependable service with little upkeep.

Act now to pave your worn-out street with soil-cement. It's today's best low-cost-pavement value.

Clean Now, Maybe

Portsmouth, Va. (AP)—The "dirty crooks" who broke into the Terminal Transfer Company ought to be clean by now. The loot consisted of soap and soap powders valude at $179—nothing else.

Get a new street quickly and economically with durable, low-cost SOIL-CEMENT

A clean, attractive, smooth-riding street in front of your house increases the value of your property. A dusty, bumpy potholed street is unsightly and unsafe. It is a nuisance to drivers who must use it and to property owners who live on it.

If your street is worn-out and run down, it can be converted into an all-weather pavement quickly and economically. Just ask your city officials to pave it with soil-cement. Soil-cement is a combination of soil or granular material usually already on the street and portland cement and water. Mixed and compacted, these elements form a rigid, durable base. A bituminous surface completes the pavement.

Soil-cement paving is fast. Your entire street can be paved in a single day—with little inconvenience to you. It's economical too! Low in first cost, it gives years of dependable service with little upkeep.

Act now to pave your worn-out street with soil-cement. It's today's best low-cost-pavement value.

HOW SOON MUST WEDDING PRESENTS BE ACKNOWLEDGED?

Today's first letter asks: "Will you please tell me the exact time a bride is allowed to write thank-you notes for her wedding presents? A friend of mine tells me that she has as long as six months in which to acknowledge them. Is this right?"

Courtesy exacts that she write them, as many as she can, every day before the wedding—trying, if possible, to send a thank-you note the day each present is received. It is true that the bride who receives very many may not be able to keep up with her list and will therefore have to wait until after she gets back from her wedding trip to send her thanks for those that arrived the last day or two before the wedding. It may be that she manages to find time to write a few especially appreciative notes while she is away. In any case, she writes to everyone when, and as soon as, she can.

Proper Closing of Letter

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the proper closing of a letter to a social acquaintance? Some of my friends say, "Very truly yours," or "Yours very truly" is correct. Others say that this is incorrect and that "Sincerely yours," or "Sincerely" is the proper close. Will you please tell me which is the correct form?

Answer: Either "Sincerely," or "Sincerely yours," or "Very sincerely" is correct for social usage. "Very truly" was used in olden times but is a definitely business letter phrase today.

Visiting Fiance's Family Who Are Strangers

Dear Mrs. Post: My finance's parents live in another state. As a result I haven't as yet been able to meet them. Would it be proper to go and visit them for a weekend upon my finance's request, or must I wait for a letter from his parents inviting me?

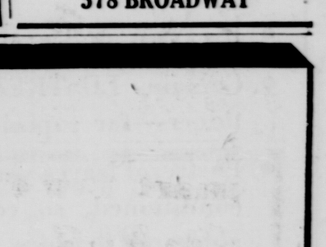

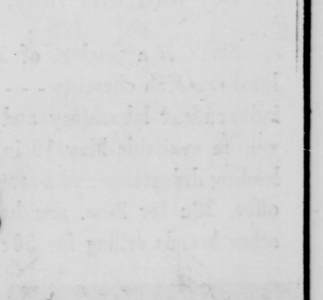

Answer: I'm sorry, but you must be invited by his mother, or other older members of his family.

What are the essentials for a hope chest? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. A list of linens and personal trousseau clothes are included in leaflet E-5. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

11 Dutch Seamen Saved

London, May 18 (AP)—Eleven Dutch seamen jumped to safety today from the plunging deck of a crippled freighter as blinding May gales lashed the English Channel and the North Sea. Dozens of small ships scuttled for shelter in the channel ports. The liner Queen Mary docked 12 hours late from New York after riding at anchor throughout the night. The Ramsgate lifeboat rescued the 11 Dutchmen from the 309-ton coaster Urmajo as it wallowed aground on the treacherous Goodwin Sands.

Private Funeral

Phoenixville, Pa., May 18 (AP)—Private funeral services, to be conducted at the convenience of his family, will be held for former Justice Owen J. Roberts of the U. S. Supreme Court. The 80-year-old jurist who died yesterday at his farm home was praised later in Washington by Chief Justice Earl Warren, on behalf of the court "as a skilled and respected jurist and a great American."

Condition Improving

The condition of Robert Smith, 32, of New Paltz road, Highland, was reported as "improving" at Kingston Hospital today. Smith, a driver of a bread truck, was taken to the hospital by police at 10:45 a. m. Tuesday when he became "short of breath" while sitting in the cab of his truck near the intersection of Broadway and Hoffman street, according to a police report. Two sheriff's deputies who were in the vicinity assisted the police.

11 Dutch Seamen Saved

London, May 18 (AP)—Eleven Dutch seamen jumped to safety today from the plunging deck of a crippled freighter as blinding May gales lashed the English Channel and the North Sea. Dozens of small ships scuttled for shelter in the channel ports. The liner Queen Mary docked 12 hours late from New York after riding at anchor throughout the night. The Ramsgate lifeboat rescued the 11 Dutchmen from the 309-ton coaster Urmajo as it wallowed aground on the treacherous Goodwin Sands.

The 80-year-old jurist who died yesterday at his farm home was praised later in Washington by Chief Justice Earl Warren, on behalf of the court "as a skilled and respected jurist and a great American."

Condition Improving

The condition of Robert Smith, 32, of New Paltz road, Highland, was reported as "improving" at Kingston Hospital today. Smith, a driver of a bread truck, was taken to the hospital by police at 10:45 a. m. Tuesday when he became "short of breath" while sitting in the cab of his truck near the intersection of Broadway and Hoffman street, according to a police report. Two sheriff's deputies who were in the vicinity assisted the police.

New Shampoo Is Developed by Local Chemists

Two local industrial chemists today announced plans to market a new shampoo they developed after five and a half years of experimentation on their own time.

David T. Zebree of 274 West Chestnut street and Billy F. Throneburg of Lawrenceville street will market their product under the name of "Swiv." It will be available May 19 in Kingston and vicinity at drugstores and beauty shops, according to Zebree.

THE PRODUCT contains "Lustrezol," a new conditioner used in shampoo for the first time, the chemists said. "Swiv" is being produced in three grades, for normal, dry and oily hair.

The business venture, strictly a sideline, was decided upon after friends encouraged the two men to market the shampoo which, they said, resulted from experiments they began "more or less as a hobby."

Zebree, a graduate chemist, attended Waynesburg College in Pennsylvania. He has resided in Kingston about 15 years. Throneburg, a graduate chemical engineer, attended North Carolina State College and was employed in Virginia prior to coming to this city.

Pep 8-5 Choice To Beat Cadilli

Detroit, May 17 (AP)—"Old Man" Willie Pep, trodding the downhill path after a 16-year career in the boxing ring, fights a rematch tonight with young Gil Cadilli, an up-and-coming scrapper from Los Angeles.

The bout will be televised nationally over CBS at 9 p. m., EST.

The oddsmakers have established Pep as an 8-5 favorite despite a loss to the 23-year-old Cadilli March 30 at Parks Air Force Base in California.

Chicago—Ike Chestnut, 130½, New York, outpointed Doug Medley, 131, Louisville, 8.

Cockell Return In England Appears Likely

San Francisco, May 18 (AP)—The chances of a return bout between champion Rocky Marciano and Don Cockell, possibly in London in September, continued to brighten today as the camps of both Monday night fighters gave enthusiastic lip service to the idea.

The Cockell camp, naturally, favors a London site. The Marciano crew agreed that "England is as good a spot as any for a rematch." The International Boxing Club, which will have the final say, wasn't talking.

COCKELL, a small patch of adhesive tape on his cut forehead and a slight scratch under his left eye were the only signs of the beating he took, said he'd welcome another chance at the title.

"I'd like to fight him again and I'd prefer London," he said at a news conference. "But I'd meet him in New York or almost any place else, although I don't fancy here at all.

"He is the best fighter I ever faced. Afraid of him? Certainly not, I'm not afraid of any man, but obviously I'd have to alter my tactics in a return match."

Marciano, high in his praise of Cockell's courage before the fight was stopped in the ninth round, said he'd be willing to meet him again "in England or any place else as long as the terms are agreeable."

THE LOCALS went ahead 2-0 in the first when George Uhl, the leadoff hitter, was safe on Contarino's miscue and Kelsch and Riggio lashed singles.

Charlie Bishop walked in the second, was balked to second and rode home on Uhl's double.

DRY-FLY FISHING ACROSS CURRENT

DRY-FLY FISHING ACROSS CURRENTS IS THE MOST DIFFICULT METHOD; FLY'S NATURAL DRIFT IS SHORT BEFORE LINE BEGINS DRAG ON FLY, CAUSING AN UNNATURAL "V" TRAIL. PREVENT "V" FORMING BY "MENDING" THE CAST; FLIPPING BOWED LINE UPSTREAM (A) WITHOUT MOVING FLY. THIS REQUIRES SKILL.

IT'S EASIER TO CAST DRY FLY TO UPSTREAM SIDE OF A DIMPLED RISE, AND PICK IT UP BEYOND THE RISE. THIS IS SPOT-FISHING EACH RISE.

The record for most victories at the beginning of a major league season is nine. It was set by the Giants in 1918 and tied by the Dodgers in 1940 and Browns in 1944.

(The Associated Press)

From the looks of the past seven days, this may turn out to be a pitcher's year in the major leagues—their first since 1951.

It's been four years since the pitchers got together and confronted the hitters with as many as 13 guys who won 20 or more. Since then the hurlers with the whammy have fallen off to six in '52, eight in '53 and six again last season.

Right now, there are 17 pitchers who have won four or more (a year ago there were 13) and they've had help from the rest to give the majors a total of 39 shutouts to date. In each of the past three seasons there were only 35 scoreless performances on record at this stage.

THIRTY-TWO pitchers have figured in the white-washings, and 13 of the shutouts have come in the past week—including Don Newcombe's one-hitter at Chicago and Sad Sam Jones' no-hitter against Pittsburgh.

Three of the shutouts came last night, despite a blanket of chilly air over most of the territory. Rookie Larry Jackson put the collar on National League leading Brooklyn at St. Louis in a 3-0 Cardinal victory. In the American League, Alex Kellner gave the Kansas City Athletics a 1-0 success at Washington while Whitey Ford spun a 1-0 trumph for the New York Yankees against the Chicago White Sox.

Only two other National League games were played with Milwaukee taking over second place, eight games behind the Brooks, by beating New York's Giants 9-4 as Cincinnati made it six straight defeats for Pittsburgh 9-2. Cold weather shelved Philadelphia's game at Chicago.

In the American, Boston knocked off Cleveland 10-3 and Baltimore beat Detroit 3-2.

Jackson's no-run job on Brooklyn highlighted a sudden surge in Cardinal pitching. It was the first shutout of the season for the Dodgers and gave St. Louis its third whitewash victory in four games.

THE BROOKS tagged the young righthander for 10 hits, but when the chips were down, Jackson went to a curve ball and found the answer. Such was the case in the first inning, when the Dodgers loaded the bases on two hits and a walk. But Jackson, now 2-0, fanned Gil Hodges to end it.

Home runs by Red Schoendienst and Ken Boyer gave it to the Cards, who got nine hits of Carl Erskine, losing his first in six decisions, and Jim Hughes. The victory pulled the Cards from fifth into a two-percentage point edge over the fourth place Giants.

At New York, Ford had himself a duel with Billy Pierce for seven innings before claiming his third shutout of the season and fifth victory. Pierce, all even now in four decisions, blew it in the sixth when he walked Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra. After a double steal attempt that moved Mantle to third but nipped Yogi at second, Pierce walked Elston Howard. Then Eddie Robinson's infield grounder brought the run home without a hit.

FORD RAN INTO trouble in the eight and ninth, but worked out of it nicely to twhart the White Sox bid to take first place. As a result, Chicago still is a game behind Cleveland, with New York another half-game back.

Kansas City managed just six hits off Maury McDermott, but got home in front on the Washington lefty's lone walk, a sacrifice and a single by Kellner in the fifth. Kellner gave eight hits, but was at his best in the clutch.

So was Erv Palica, the ex-Brooklyn righthander. His six hits were in the form of three triples and Harvey Kuenn's three singles, but he limited the Tigers to but one hit in any inning. Billy Cox, another former Dodger, homered for the Orioles as Ned Garver lost his fifth in a turn-bout of a game in Detroit last month. Palica lost that one to Garver by the same 3-2 count.

Kuenn now has smacked 10 hits in his last 14 trips, skyrocketing to a .398 average that tops the majors.

ANOTHER HOT HITTER was cooled off at Milwaukee (where temperatures were in the 40s). The Giants' Don Mueller saw his 24-game hitting streak stopped, settling for a tie for the club's record.

Gene Conley won his fifth on nine hits, riding out homers by Willie Mays and Hank Tompson while the Braves pounded five Giant pitchers for 15 hits. Joe Adcock had four-for-five, including a home run. Al Corwin was the loser.

Cleveland, missing the injured Al Rosen, Bobby Avila and Georgie Strickland, finally was dumped at Fenway Park after taking 11 straight at the Red Sox hang out. Early Wynn lost it, his first setback of the season.

Fans 8 to Gain 6-0 Shutout

Yesterday's Results

Perry's 6, Hilltops 0.

Subway Grill 13, Rapp's 1.

Hercules 14, Cherny's 9.

American Legion 15, Cedar Rest 13.

Destroyer A.C. 8, Wimpy's 3.

Joe Venuti pitched a one-hit shutout and fanned eight as Perry's blanked Hilltop, 6-0, in the City Softball League feature yesterday.

The winners collected six hits off Brown, including a pair of singles by Cliff Davis.

Destroyers whipped Wimpy's 8-3 behind the 6-hit twirling of Dave Brandon and B. Taylor. D. Lindsay hit a single and triple for the winners. B. Anderson, Johnny Armstrong and Charlie Marable also had two hits. J. Smith got a pair, including a double for Wimpy's.

BURT BURR WENT "5 for 5" including a double and four singles as Subway Grill overwhelmed Rapp's Express behind Al Hunt's 8-hitter. Willie Cragan got a triple and Barnes two doubles for Subways. Ken Steltz had two singles for Rapp's.

Leo Bechtold and John Grube powdered homers for Hercules in a 14-9 decision over Cherny's. R. Walker yielded 13 hits but was given a 7-run bulge in the first inning. Ed Cherny pitched for the losers.

D. Wallace and P. Post slugged homers for the losers. W. Ritter was "4 for 4" with four singles and G. Winters rapped two doubles for the Cherny's. Grube added two singles to his homer for Hercules.

AMERICAN LEGION overcame a 9-run Cedar Rest rally in the third to win a 15-13 squeaker. Among the 17 Legion safeties off P. Torsof were a double and three singles by H. Fulgum in four trips.

(The Associated Press)

From the looks of the past seven days, this may turn out to be a pitcher's year in the major leagues—their first since 1951.

It's been four years since the pitchers got together and confronted the hitters with as many as 13 guys who won 20 or more. Since then the hurlers with the whammy have fallen off to six in '52, eight in '53 and six again last season.

Right now, there are 17 pitchers who have won four or more (a year ago there were 13) and they've had help from the rest to give the majors a total of 39 shutouts to date. In each of the past three seasons there were only 35 scoreless performances on record at this stage.

THIRTY-TWO pitchers have figured in the white-washings, and 13 of the shutouts have come in the past week—including Don Newcombe's one-hitter at Chicago and Sad Sam Jones' no-hitter against Pittsburgh.

Three of the shutouts came last night, despite a blanket of chilly air over most of the territory. Rookie Larry Jackson put the collar on National League leading Brooklyn at St. Louis in a 3-0 Cardinal victory. In the American League, Alex Kellner gave the Kansas City Athletics a 1-0 success at Washington while Whitey Ford spun a 1-0 triumph for the New York Yankees against the Chicago White Sox.

Only two other National League games were played with Milwaukee taking over second place, eight games behind the Brooks, by beating New York's Giants 9-4 as Cincinnati made it six straight defeats for Pittsburgh 9-2. Cold weather shelved Philadelphia's game at Chicago.

In the American, Boston knocked off Cleveland 10-3 and Baltimore beat Detroit 3-2.

Jackson's no-run job on Brooklyn highlighted a sudden surge in Cardinal pitching. It was the first shutout of the season for the Dodgers and gave St. Louis its third whitewash victory in four games.

THE BROOKS tagged the young righthander for 10 hits, but when the chips were down, Jackson went to a curve ball and found the answer. Such was the case in the first inning, when the Dodgers loaded the bases on two hits and a walk. But Jackson, now 2-0, fanned Gil Hodges to end it.

Home runs by Red Schoendienst and Ken Boyer gave it to the Cards, who got nine hits of Carl Erskine, losing his first in six decisions, and Jim Hughes. The victory pulled the Cards from fifth into a two-percentage point edge over the fourth place Giants.

At New York, Ford had himself a duel with Billy Pierce for seven innings before claiming his third shutout of the season and fifth victory. Pierce, all even now in four decisions, blew it in the sixth when he walked Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra. After a double steal attempt that moved Mantle to third but nipped Yogi at second, Pierce walked Elston Howard. Then Eddie Robinson's infield grounder brought the run home without a hit.

FORD RAN INTO trouble in the eight and ninth, but worked out of it nicely to twhart the White Sox bid to take first place. As a result, Chicago still is a game behind Cleveland, with New York another half-game back.

Kansas City managed just six hits off Maury McDermott, but got home in front on the Washington lefty's lone walk, a sacrifice and a single by Kellner in the fifth. Kellner gave eight hits, but was at his best in the clutch.

So was Erv Palica, the ex-Brooklyn righthander. His six hits were in the form of three triples and Harvey Kuenn's three singles, but he limited the Tigers to but one hit in any inning. Billy Cox, another former Dodger, homered for the Orioles as Ned Garver lost his fifth in a turn-bout of a game in Detroit last month. Palica lost that one to Garver by the same 3-2 count.

Kuenn now has smacked 10 hits in his last 14 trips, skyrocketing to a .398 average that tops the majors.

ANOTHER HOT HITTER was cooled off at Milwaukee (where temperatures were in the 40s). The Giants' Don Mueller saw his 24-game hitting streak stopped, settling for a tie for the club's record.

Gene Conley won his fifth on nine hits, riding out homers by Willie Mays and Hank Tompson while the Braves pounded five Giant pitchers for 15 hits. Joe Adcock had four-for-five, including a home run. Al Corwin was the loser.

Cleveland, missing the injured Al Rosen, Bobby Avila and Georgie Strickland, finally was dumped at Fenway Park after taking 11 straight at the Red Sox hang out. Early Wynn lost it, his first setback of the season.

Ralph Dupas Wins Over Ryff In Bloody New Orleans Bout

New Orleans, May 18 (AP) — The stripling Louisiana Boxing Enterprises and the powerful International Boxing Club of New York today competed for a return match between top-ranked lightweight Ralph Dupas of New Orleans and New York's Frankie Ryff.

Dupas won a bloody 10-round split decision in handing the No. 3 ranked Ryff his first professional defeat last night before the largest paid crowd in New Orleans boxing history. But many of the 9,200 fans disagreed with the decision.

BLAISE D'ANTONI, wealthy founder of LBE, made a $15,000 offer to Charlie Black, Ryff's manager, for a return match in New Orleans. The fight drew a $48,000 gross gate and LBE officials pointed out many matches in Madison Square Garden draw less than half that. IBC wants Dupas and Ryff in a televised match from Madison Square Garden.

Dupas erased one of his six losses in a 65-fight career with the decision over Ryff, who went into last night's match with 17 victories without a loss. Ryff won a decision over Dupas last September.

THE BIG CROWD hooted the decision when Judge Pete Giaruso gave Dupas eight rounds and Ryff two. Judge Francis Kercheval called Dupas the winner 6-4, but Referee Eddie (Kid) Wolfe awarded the verdict to Ryff, six to four. The AP gave Dupas the edge, five rounds to three, with two even.

The fight was one of the bloodiest main events here in years. Ryff's right eye poured blood after the second round as Dupas flicked at it from a distance with a lightning-like left. Dupas moved inside only occasionally for a two-hand flurry. Ryff was superior in the infighting and on the ropes, but Dupas showed a clear margin at long distance.

Police Checking On Suspicious Fort Street Blaze

Fire of suspicious origin Tuesday night damaged a garage on Fort street used by a construction company for storage of building materials, the fire department reported.

A police investigation was requested after firemen noted that the blaze started on the outside of the one story frame shed about 10 p. m.

THE FIRE worked up the siding to a corner of the roof, damaging a portion of the roof and roof timber, according to the fire department report. A hydrant stream was used to extinguish the blaze. No damage was listed to materials stored inside the structure.

Another fire call Tuesday was received at 3:55 a. m. for an overheated oil stove in a two story frame dwelling at 508 Wilbur avenue owned by Mrs. William McElrath.

Books With Teeth

Salina, Kan. (AP)—Some bookworm was really getting his teeth into tomes at the Salina Public Library. He left a pair of uppers on a shelf behind a row of books. Quite a few toothless citizens appeared to claim the dentures, the library said.

Traffic Stops Him

Toledo, Ohio (AP)—Because of his many traffic violations, Frank Winczek was told in municipal court that he could no longer drive his car. A few days later Winczek was back in court. He had been arrested for walking through a red light.

Ralph Dupas Wins Over Ryff In Bloody New Orleans Bout

New Orleans, May 18 (AP) — The stripling Louisiana Boxing Enterprises and the powerful International Boxing Club of New York today competed for a return match between top-ranked lightweight Ralph Dupas of New Orleans and New York's Frankie Ryff.

Dupas won a bloody 10-round split decision in handing the No. 3 ranked Ryff his first professional defeat last night before the largest paid crowd in New Orleans boxing history. But many of the 9,200 fans disagreed with the decision.

BLAISE D'ANTONI, wealthy founder of LBE, made a $15,000 offer to Charlie Black, Ryff's manager, for a return match in New Orleans. The fight drew a $48,000 gross gate and LBE officials pointed out many matches in Madison Square Garden draw less than half that. IBC wants Dupas and Ryff in a televised match from Madison Square Garden.

Dupas erased one of his six losses in a 65-fight career with the decision over Ryff, who went into last night's match with 17 victories without a loss. Ryff won a decision over Dupas last September.

THE BIG CROWD hooted the decision when Judge Pete Giaruso gave Dupas eight rounds and Ryff two. Judge Francis Kercheval called Dupas the winner 6-4, but Referee Eddie (Kid) Wolfe awarded the verdict to Ryff, six to four. The AP gave Dupas the edge, five rounds to three, with two even.

The fight was one of the bloodiest main events here in years. Ryff's right eye poured blood after the second round as Dupas flicked at it from a distance with a lightning-like left. Dupas moved inside only occasionally for a two-hand flurry. Ryff was superior in the infighting and on the ropes, but Dupas showed a clear margin at long distance.

Police Checking On Suspicious Fort Street Blaze

Fire of suspicious origin Tuesday night damaged a garage on Fort street used by a construction company for storage of building materials, the fire department reported.

A police investigation was requested after firemen noted that the blaze started on the outside of the one story frame shed about 10 p. m.

THE FIRE worked up the siding to a corner of the roof, damaging a portion of the roof and roof timber, according to the fire department report. A hydrant stream was used to extinguish the blaze. No damage was listed to materials stored inside the structure.

Another fire call Tuesday was received at 3:55 a. m. for an overheated oil stove in a two story frame dwelling at 508 Wilbur avenue owned by Mrs. William McElrath.

Books With Teeth

Salina, Kan. (AP)—Some bookworm was really getting his teeth into tomes at the Salina Public Library. He left a pair of uppers on a shelf behind a row of books. Quite a few toothless citizens appeared to claim the dentures, the library said.

Traffic Stops Him

Toledo, Ohio (AP)—Because of his many traffic violations, Frank Winczek was told in municipal court that he could no longer drive his car. A few days later Winczek was back in court. He had been arrested for walking through a red light.

Monroney Gives Views

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) said today "it's too early to tell" whether Adlai E. Stevenson will seek the Democratic presidential nomination next year. "I don't think Stevenson is afraid of running against Eisenhower," Monroney said. "But he wants to look around the country to see what the situation is. He wants to be sure that if he runs, he will have the backing of all the Democrats."

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: It's about time for me to renew my auto insurance. I've been paying an increased rate because our son is only 19 and he sometimes drives our car. Now he's in the service and comes home only now and then. Do I still have to pay the higher rate? My son does drive our car when he is at home.
ANSWER: You pay the lower rate. For insurance rating purposes the National Automobile Underwriter's Association has stated that persons under 25 but in the Armed Services shall not be considered residents of the insured's household unless they are close to home and drive the car regularly.
* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.

The Weather

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1955

Sun rises at 4:33 a. m.; sun sets at 7:12 p. m., E.S.T.

Weather, fair.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 43 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 68 degrees.

Weather Forecast

NEW YORK CITY and vicinity — Sunny this afternoon, warmer than yesterday, high near 70. Clear and a little milder tonight. Low 50 to 55, except in 40's cooler interior sections of the city, Thursday fair and pleasant, high in the 70's. Moderate, occasionally fresh northwesterly winds this afternoon, tonight and also Thursday.

TURNING COOL

EASTERN New York—Partly cloudy in the north and mostly sunny in the southern portions today and tomorrow, high temperatures both days in the upper 50s and 60s. Fair and cool tonight with scattered light frost, low temperatures in the 30s.

SAME BLOOD, SAME JOBS—Airman Third Class Harry S. Kirby proudly helps sister, Annie R. Kirby, an Airman Second Class, with her epaulets. The Kirbys, from Ft. Walton, Fla., hold duplicate jobs as tactical instructors of new airmen at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex.

Monroney Gives Views

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) said today "it's too early to tell" whether Adlai E. Stevenson will seek the Democratic presidential nomination next year. "I don't think Stevenson is afraid of running against Eisenhower," Monroney said. "But he wants to look around the country to see what the situation is. He wants to be sure that if he runs, he will have the backing of all the Democrats."

The wavelength of light determines its color.

Reds Going Early

Vienna, Austria, May 18 (AP)—Russia apparently is not going to wait for ratification of the Austrian state treaty to begin withdrawing its occupation troops. Austrian sources say Soviet commanders in several towns have notified police that their headquarters will be closed in a day or two.

Now you Know!
The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: It's about time for me to renew my auto insurance. I've been paying an increased rate because our son is only 19 and he sometimes drives our car. Now he's in the service and comes home only now and then. Do I still have to pay the higher rate? My son does drive our car when he is at home.
ANSWER: You pay the lower rate. For insurance rating purposes the National Automobile Underwriter's Association has stated that persons under 25 but in the Armed Services shall not be considered residents of the insured's household unless they are close to home and drive the car regularly.
* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.
